Queen U.S.-Bound For Six-Day Stay

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
OTTAWA (AP)—After four days of regal duties and glittering social events, Queen Elizabeth II bid farewell today to her Canadian subjects and flew off on a six-day visit to the United States.

The queen's last full day in Canada was a busy one, climaxed last night by a reception for more than 1,300 persons and a formal dinner party for 20 given by Prime Minister John G. Diefenbaker.

Faces Crowded Day
Ahead of her when she lands at Newport News Va., was another crowded afternoon and evening. She was to tour Jamestown and Williamsburg for five hours, then attend a reception and dinner as part of the 350th anniversary celebration of the first lasting British settlement in the new world.

Tomorrow the queen flies to Washington. She will fly home from New York City early Tuesday.

The queen's right hand and arm got a vigorous workout at yesterday's reception. The announced guest list had 1,342 names but reporters guessed nearer 2,000 persons showed up. That made the most hands the queen has clasped at one affair since a reception in Washington in 1951 when she was a princess.

Good Preparation
Wearing a cocktail dress in beige and gold brocade with a full, circular skirt, Elizabeth shook hands for more than 80 minutes. It was good preparation for a reception during her Washington visit, for the press corps, to which about 2,400 have been invited.

As the guests came in, aides cautioned them in a whisper: "Easy on the handshaking—the queen is a bit tired—don't shake hands too hard."

Among cabinet ministers, military leaders and other officials, the guests included nine Indian chiefs. They represented each of Canada's 10 provinces except Prince Edward Island, whose chief was sick. They turned up in business suits.

After she had finished welcoming the guests, Elizabeth walked slowly through the crowd, smiled and made her exit.

She changed into a dramatic evening gown of white, embroidered in cascades of silver and gold. (Continued on Page 7, Col. 5)

Nov. 5 Approval Won't Start Games Next Day
By CHARLES DUMAS
ALBANY (AP)—How do you feel about bingo? Do you think it should be legalized in this state? On Nov. 5, New York voters will be given a chance to decide for themselves. The majority will rule.

The question will appear on the election ballot as a proposed amendment to the state Constitution, to except the game from the constitutional ban on gambling.

It will be Number 3 among six proposed amendments and a proposition. Subsequent articles in this series will deal with the other subjects.

Patrolmen Engaging Gaffney Democrat Leaders Vague on Origin

Petitions asking state probes in the city and county have much in common in that they both bear names from residents of the Town of Rosendale, it was learned today.

The Kingston probe, announced first, deals solely with an investigation of the recent probe of the police department and that, coming from Rosendale directly, asks the state to have a countywide look at governmental affairs.

Vague on Origin
Origin and content of both are vague insofar as local political leaders are concerned, but the text of one, (on the police probe), has been revealed.

William A. Kelly, County Democratic chairman, said today that he had been ill for about 10 days and was not familiar with details concerning either. Sent to Gov. Harriman, through his counsel, Daniel Guttman, the one on the police probe, was finally referred to Arthur L. Reuter, acting commissioner of investigations for the state, whose job it is at present to determine if full-scale investigations are necessary.

Police Retain Counsel
Locally, the Kingston Patrolmen's Association has taken a new step in retaining counsel. They named Charles H. Gaffney on a year's retaining basis and the association was due to meet with him at a meeting called for 6:30 p. m. today.

Gaffney had previously represented the KPA when police department personnel sought to gain a pay boost through referendum in 1948.

100 Sign City Petition
The Rosendale petition, it was learned today, was circulated by persons, who have been interested in Democratic politics in the township, and one source said that the so-called Kingston petition, with 400 names, bore at least 100 names of persons who reside in the Town of Rosendale. The Rosendale petition, it was noted, was actually forwarded first. It was undetermined today whether either bore signed letters. (Continued on Page 6, Col. 5)

Bingo Up to Local Option

Nov. 5 Approval Won't Start Games Next Day
By CHARLES DUMAS
ALBANY (AP)—How do you feel about bingo? Do you think it should be legalized in this state? On Nov. 5, New York voters will be given a chance to decide for themselves. The majority will rule.

The question will appear on the election ballot as a proposed amendment to the state Constitution, to except the game from the constitutional ban on gambling.

It will be Number 3 among six proposed amendments and a proposition. Subsequent articles in this series will deal with the other subjects.

Has Religious Overtones
The bingo amendment grew out of political maneuvering that surrounded the 1954 election for governor and has blossomed into a controversy with definite religious overtones.

The State Council of Churches, a Protestant organization, is driving hard for defeat of the amendment. Last month, Protestant churches in the state united on "Big No" Sunday to rally opposition.

Vets, Firemen Want It
Catholic church interests are not opposing the move toward legalization, however. Veterans' and volunteer firemen's organizations are pressing for a big "yes" from the voters.

All these groups are vitally concerned in the outcome because of a restriction in the amendment that says:

"If authorized . . . only bona fide religious, charitable or non-profit organizations shall be permitted to conduct such games."

The Protestant group takes the position that gambling of any kind is wrong and that churches, especially, should not sponsor bingo games. Catholic groups generally see no harm in the game.

Politicians long have been under pressure to legalize bingo. (Continued on Page 7, Col. 1)

Loss of Freedom Now Would Mean 100-Year Slavery

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—If freedom loses in the struggle with totalitarianism, it may be a century before it can be regained, Vice President Nixon warned the International Industrial Development Conference in a major speech last night.

Pegging his talk to the Soviet launching of the satellite "Sputnik," the vice president told a dinner audience of 800 that the free world "must be prepared for an all-out Communist economic offensive to win the allegiance of hundreds of millions of people in the uncommitted world, as well as even some of those in the free world."

$500 Raise Asked For State Workers
In Civil Service

Service Employees Assn. has called for a wage increase of $500 a year for all state employees, it was reported today by Leon Studdt, president of the Ulster County Chapter, and Albert R. Thomas, a member of the local organization.

The two local delegates attended the two-day 47th annual convention which closed last night in Albany after it re-elected John F. Powers, of Albany, to a fourth two-year term as president.

They reported the salary committee proposed that the raise be the first point on its program of recommended 1958 legislation. The association claims a membership of 75,000.

The committee also urged action to have all state workers put on a five-day, 40-hour week. It is estimated that 31,000, exclusive of the state police, still were employed on a 42-hour week.

State troopers now are on duty at all times except for two periods of 21 hours each week and four days a month. This works out to an average of 81 hours a week.

May Close N.Y. Woods
Continued Drought to Idle Hunters
ALBANY (AP)—The hunting seasons may be suspended unless rain dampens the tinder-dry woods before Friday afternoon.

The State Conservation Department yesterday cancelled all burning permits in areas under its jurisdiction. Commissioner Sharon J. Mauhs said the woods were "exceptionally" dry in all sections.

Thirteen fires were reported in the state yesterday, the department said. They burned over a total 125 acres.

No Heavy Rains Due
Mauhs said he might have to suspend the hunting seasons if rain did not appear in 72 hours.

He said also a recommendation that the governor order the woods closed as a "distinct possibility."

The Weather Bureau expects some light rain before Friday. But forecasters say there is no heavy precipitation expected.

The small-game season opened last Monday. The big-game season in the Adirondacks is scheduled to open Oct. 25.

The department's Bureau of Forest Fire Control reported that hardwood leaves had fallen rapidly over the weekend and greatly increased the forest fire danger.

Last night, a fire broke out in the Town of Corning, Steuben County, but was quickly brought under control by firemen and residents. The Conservation Department. (Continued on Page 7, Col. 5)

Mt. Tremper Man Arrested For Door-Forcing Attempt

A Mt. Tremper tavern owner has been arrested by Kingston state police on charges arising from an alleged attempt to enter the Raymond Kenyon home in Woodstock late Monday night.

Richard Kahil, 38, proprietor of the Rainbow Lodge, was arrested by Troopers James Kaljian and Richard Finnan yesterday following an intensive investigation.

He is charged with disorderly conduct and reckless driving. Trial Set Oct. 23

Kahil entered a plea of innocent to both charges when arraigned before Justice of the Peace Frank Carle of the town of Olive. Bail of $50 was set for trial before Judge Carle at 7 p. m. Wednesday, Oct. 23.

Troopers completed their investigation Tuesday and obtained a warrant from Judge Carle for Kahil's arrest.

It is alleged in the complaint filed by Mr. and Mrs. Kenyon that Kahil attempted to force open the front door of their home on Neher Street shortly before midnight. The Kenyons telephoned state police who dispatched Kaljian and Finnan.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenyon managed to force the door shut. They allege that Kahil then walked into the front yard and picked up a rock, returning toward the house.

Kenyon fetched his hunting knife and went into the yard. Kahil allegedly got into a light-colored station wagon which had been left idling in front of the house and drove off.

Abandoned Chase
Kenyon got into his car and followed Kahil who allegedly drove erratically through the village of Woodstock, made a U-turn and attempted to ram the Kenyon vehicle. Kenyon then abandoned the chase.

Troopers searched the area for the car for several hours. (Continued on Page 7, Col. 6)

Community College Start Urged Here

The Board of Supervisors is strongly urged by its citizen's advisory committee to "take all steps necessary" to establish a Community College in Ulster County.

In a resolution Tuesday night the committee "strongly recommends and petitions the Board of Supervisors, through its community college committee, to take all steps necessary at the earliest appropriate time for establishment from the board of trustees of the State University of New York in the manner provided by law."

Largely Attended
The resolution was submitted at a public meeting in the local courthouse last night attended by several hundred people from all parts of the county. Also present were members of the Board of Supervisors.

The resolution, signed by Harry Rigby Jr., chairman of the citizen's advisory committee, pointed out that the committee had been appointed to investigate the "feasibility of creating such an institution, to continue its activities and studies in an advisory position, particularly in the field of investigating and gauging public sentiment."

Took Four Months
It further stated that the committee had spent "a period of four months in faithfully pursuing such a task and as a result thereof sincerely is convinced that the citizens of Ulster County in general do need and do desire the creation of a Community College."

Rigby placed in record a number of resolutions and letters from area organizations and individuals favoring the establishment or study of the possibility of a Community College. (Continued on Page 6, Col. 5)

Follows Stand of State Body Area Chamber Says No On Convention in 1959

Controversy over a referendum in the November 5 election proposing a Constitutional Convention in 1959 continued unabated today as these developments were reported locally and throughout the state:

1) The Kingston Area Chamber of Commerce said it was in accord with a recent report of the Empire State Chamber of Commerce that it could find no urgency for holding such a convention.

2) The law reform committee of the New York State Chamber of Commerce urged voters to vote "no" on the referendum.

3) Assemblyman Kenneth L. Wilson, of Woodstock, said upstate Democratic leaders are willing to sacrifice the best interests of their own communities in order to support such a convention "through which Governor Harriman hopes to give Tammany Hall control of the Legislature," and

4) A joint appeal for a "yes" vote on holding the convention in 1959 has been issued by Democratic leaders of nine counties in the New York metropolitan area.

Finds No Urgency
Albert Kurdt, manager of the local Chamber, said the organization agreed with the Empire State Chamber that it could find no urgency for holding such a convention.

Corporation Counsel James Abernethy, a member of the state committee named to investigate the need for a Constitutional Convention, attended the recent meeting of the constitutional convention committee of the Empire State Chamber.

Reason Given
The law reform committee of the New York Chamber of Commerce, urging voters to oppose referendum question No. 1 at the November 5 election, concluded:

"There should be no convention until the Temporary State Commission on the Constitutional Convention has completed its report." (Continued on Page 7, Col. 4)

Situation In City of No Alarm Dutchess Schools Closed by Illness

Absenteeism in the Kingston school system was reported today by Dr. Dudley W. Hargrave as 17 per cent, about twice the normal percentage of absent students for this period of the year.

And Asian flu has reached "epidemic" proportion in the Onteora Central School area where Principal John H. Moehle ordered the schools of that district closed at the end of today's school day.

Onteora Central, Pine Hill and West Hurley schools will remain closed until Monday.

Not Alarming Here
Conditions in Kingston, however, are not alarming at the moment and at the office of Superintendent of Schools Earl F. Soper, it was stated there was no present prospect of closing the city schools.

On Monday 14.9 per cent of the students in the Kingston School system reported absent, Robert S. Macdonald, assistant superintendent of schools, said. Tuesday there were 375 high school students absent, about twice the normal percentage at this season of the year.

Among the absentees are six members of the varsity football team which was scheduled to play Mont Pleasant High School Friday night at the Schenectady Stadium. Mont Pleasant officials requested a postponement of the contest since about 400 students are out with the flu.

Small Increase
Absenteeism in the city system had increased only one tenth of one per cent over Monday's figure. Macdonald said the normal percentage of absenteeism at this season of the year was from 6 per cent to 8 per cent. Attendance figures for today were not available from school officials as attendance records from the various schools continued to come in, Macdonald said.

Two Schools Open Again
Dr. Hargrave reported no additional schools closing in Ulster County today and said the two schools which had been closed over the past weekend, apparently had opened Monday as scheduled. Ellenville schools closed last Tuesday and Kerhonkson schools closed last Thursday and Friday due to "administrative" reasons.

There were 140 students absent when the schools closed, it was reported. When Kerhonkson opened Monday there were 180 absent, on Tuesday absenteeism had dropped to 162 and today there were 155 absent.

Tapering Off
The absenteeism today, however, represented about 22 per cent of attendance but apparently the peak has been reached and there appears to be a tapering off of the epidemic.

In Ellenville the peak of the epidemic appears to have been passed for the moment. Monday when schools opened there were 563 absent. Tuesday this had dropped to 407 and today there were 384 students out.

Catskill Fire May Be $100,000 Loss

CATSKILL (AP)—Two fires said to have broken out simultaneously early today damaged the three-story Day & Holt business building and destroyed a nearby storage building in the center of this village.

Owners of a hardware store and a shoe store, occupants of the structures, said the total loss would exceed $100,000.

The buildings were separated by an alley. The storage building was in the rear.

Fire Commissioner Dominic Cornelius said policemen discovered the fires in the larger brick building and in the two-story frame storage building. He said the fires had broken out at the same time. The cause was undetermined. An investigation was underway.

Firemen from Athens, Cossack, Palenville and Hudson aided Catskill firemen.

KINGSTON, NEW YORK, OCTOBER 16, 1957

REGISTER THIS WEEK

Friday and Saturday of this week are the last two days of registration in the City of Kingston for the general election to be held November 5. Friday, the hours of registration will be from 10 a. m. to 10 p. m. Saturday, the final day, the polls will be open from 7 a. m. to 10 p. m.

In Ulster County outside the City of Kingston, the final day of registration is Saturday when the polls will be open from 1 p. m. to 10 p. m.

Newcomers to the county, where non-personal registration is in effect, and those who have permitted their voting privilege to lapse, should remember that this Saturday is their last opportunity to register for the November 5 election.

Entitled to vote are those qualified voters who have been residents of the state for at least a year, of the county for 90 days and the district in which they reside for 30 days.

Candidates to be elected in the City of Kingston are the mayor, alderman-at-large, city judge, supervisors and aldermen of the various wards. The offices to be filled on a county-wide basis are county clerk and county coroner.

In addition there will appear on the top line of the voting machine a question and six amendments. The question deals with the proposed Constitution Convention. The amendments are No. 1, state university borrowing; No. 2, repayment of housing loans; No. 3, legalizing bingo; No. 4, town and village housing authority debts; No. 5, disposition of small forest preserve parcels; No. 6, highway improvements in forest preserves.

Government is the business of all citizens and no level of government is closer to the people than local government. There is no such thing as an off year when it comes to elections. However, if you fail to be registered by this Saturday night, you will not be entitled to vote.

Molotov is reported to be happy working at his new job in Outer Mongolia. Why shouldn't he be? Look how far away he is from Khrushchev.

A not-very-original columnist notes that bad news is played up in the papers because it is unusual. Run for cover if the reverse is ever true.

DAY OF MOURNING

Budapest is nervous as Oct. 23, the anniversary of last year's revolution, approaches. Harrison E. Salisbury, New York Times correspondent, writes from the Hungarian capital: "Leading members of the regime have been haranguing workers and students, warning them that no manifestations of any kind will be permitted Oct. 23."

Also, efforts are being made to end a sitdown strike of workers which has been in progress since the Hungarian revolution was crushed by Russian bullets and armor. Double teams of tommy gunners have been stationed at entrances to the radio building, scene of much fighting a year ago.

The hearts and minds of the Hungarian people clearly remain as before. The people want freedom. They want to rejoin Europe as a free nation. They want the Russians all to go home, and they do not want the puppet Kadar regime and the rule of the hated Hungarian secret police.

They are reported to despair of bettering their lot, but they have not been effectively propagandized or co-ordinated, neither by executions and arrest nor by words and slogans. With Hungary in chains, Oct. 23 should be a day of mourning.

Some advertising experts are said to favor making programs less entertaining so the commercials will appear more exciting. A few recent shows indicate the movement is already under way.

'These Days'

By GEORGE SOKOLSKY

THE QUEEN!

The arrival of the Queen in the United States on her first state visit to this country is an event which even Americans who are not inclined toward Great Britain will recognize as of outstanding significance. The British remain our closest allies despite the enormous energy that has been devoted by the enemies of both countries to tear them apart. It is not enough that we need to make our dealings with Great Britain as smooth as two competing nations in the economic field can make them, we need also to continue the social and cultural relationships which bind us even more closely.

Elizabeth II appeals to the American mind not for the grandeur of her personality but for its simplicity. The family group is attractive. If tales of Philip's derelictions have called for some notice in our press, it has only made the Queen and her consort more human, more like me and thee. It is in the nature of Americans to prefer the great to the simple, not because they believe in noblesse oblige but rather because "all men are created equal" that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable rights.

The United States is not an Anglo-Saxon in population as is generally accepted. It may even be that demographically the Teutonic strain is the stronger, and the Italian and Slavic strains are constantly growing. However our civilization is distinctly Anglo-Saxon, influencing perhaps more those who descend from the Eastern and Southern Europeans today than those who trace their ancestry back to the early settlers and who have, so often, taken their blessings here for granted, being so accustomed to them.

Perhaps the Queen's visit may stimulate a renewal of interest in the British institutions which this nation inherited from her nation, institutions and ideas to which alone we must attribute our moral strength that has preserved us a nation. Of course, Americans will understand that the Queen possesses no political authority; that as Queen of Great Britain or of Canada or in whatever capacity she serves each of the members of the Commonwealth of Nations, her position is moral and suasive.

The Queen of England does not rule; she reigns. And therein lies not only a tremendous constitutional difference but it explains why the institution of royalty continues in a country which is essentially republican. Rulers become politicians and they sway with the wind to keep themselves in office, often performing acts for which they hate themselves but which they rationalize as essential to keep their unspeakable opponents out of office. The British royal family depends not upon voters nor upon power. Its sole claim upon the people is their love and respect. To be a queen without power, to have the appearance of authority and yet to assume nothing but responsibility is a role that Elizabeth I would not have understood, nor would Victoria have understood it. But it has become the characteristic of the House of Windsor that this should be so and the British people, Tory or socialist, wish it to be so. There is little realistic opposition to the monarchy in Great Britain.

The royal family sets the social and moral pace for the nation. If as young people, royalty is gay, it is also devoted and performs its duties as readily and constantly as its forebears did. It fits the age that the monarch and her family should be young, for Great Britain will either be resurrected in the second half of the Twentieth Century or it will become fossilized by cataclysmic events. It is the role of youth to be gay and to fight fierce battles with laughter and cheer. So we read of the Queen and Philip, of Margaret and Charles and Anne and it all seems as though royalty may have a touch of the plebeian, in an era when most royalty has become dispossessed and the proletariat has taken over with all the ugliness of those who are not accustomed to the roles they play. At any rate, the Queen of England can walk the streets of any British city unguarded and the people will cheer. And Prince Charles can go to a commoner's school and play with other boys his own age, as a boy should.

Apparently, the House of Windsor has discovered the soul of kingship which is in the phrase, "I serve."

Mastitis Is Problem Common to Women Who Are in Middle Years
BY EDWIN P. JORDAN, M.D.
Written for NEA Service

Today's first question brings up a problem common to women in their middle years.

Q—Please discuss mastitis. I had one tumor removed and have been told that more are likely to develop.—Mrs. V. R.

A—This question probably refers to a disorder which is known as chronic cystic mastitis. The cause is not known, but it is characterized by the development of small tumors in the breasts. It is impossible to tell from a physical examination whether such tumors are cystic mastitis or cancer. Therefore, surgeons almost invariably recommend their removal. When taken out, a small piece is sent to the laboratory, frozen, cut and examined under the microscope while the patient is still on the operating table. This permits decision on how the operation should be further conducted. Chronic cystic mastitis tends to disappear at the time of the menopause.

Q—A friend has been told that his severe symptoms of high blood pressure are probably the result of using a commercial water softener in his home. Does this have any basis in fact?—J. D.

A—The use of a commercial water softener is certainly not a recognized cause for hypertension. Furthermore, people with high blood pressure long before commercial water-softening systems were available. There is no scientific evidence of which I am aware that softened water is a cause of disease.

Q—Is mental illness produced by radioactive fallout? It surely seems odd that so many people are becoming ill just because of emotions.—F. M. C.

A—There has always been some radioactive fallout from cosmic rays. But there is no reason to believe that either those rays or increased radioactive fallout from explosion of nuclear material is directly responsible for mental illness.

Q—Can you please let me know what is synovitis of the knees?—Mrs. K.

A—The synovial membrane (from which synovitis gets its name) is a delicate tissue lying in and around the movable joints. It can become inflamed for a number of reasons. These include injury, direct infection by germs and more obscure disorders such as rheumatoid arthritis. Its significance, treatment and probability of cure, therefore, depend on many individual factors.

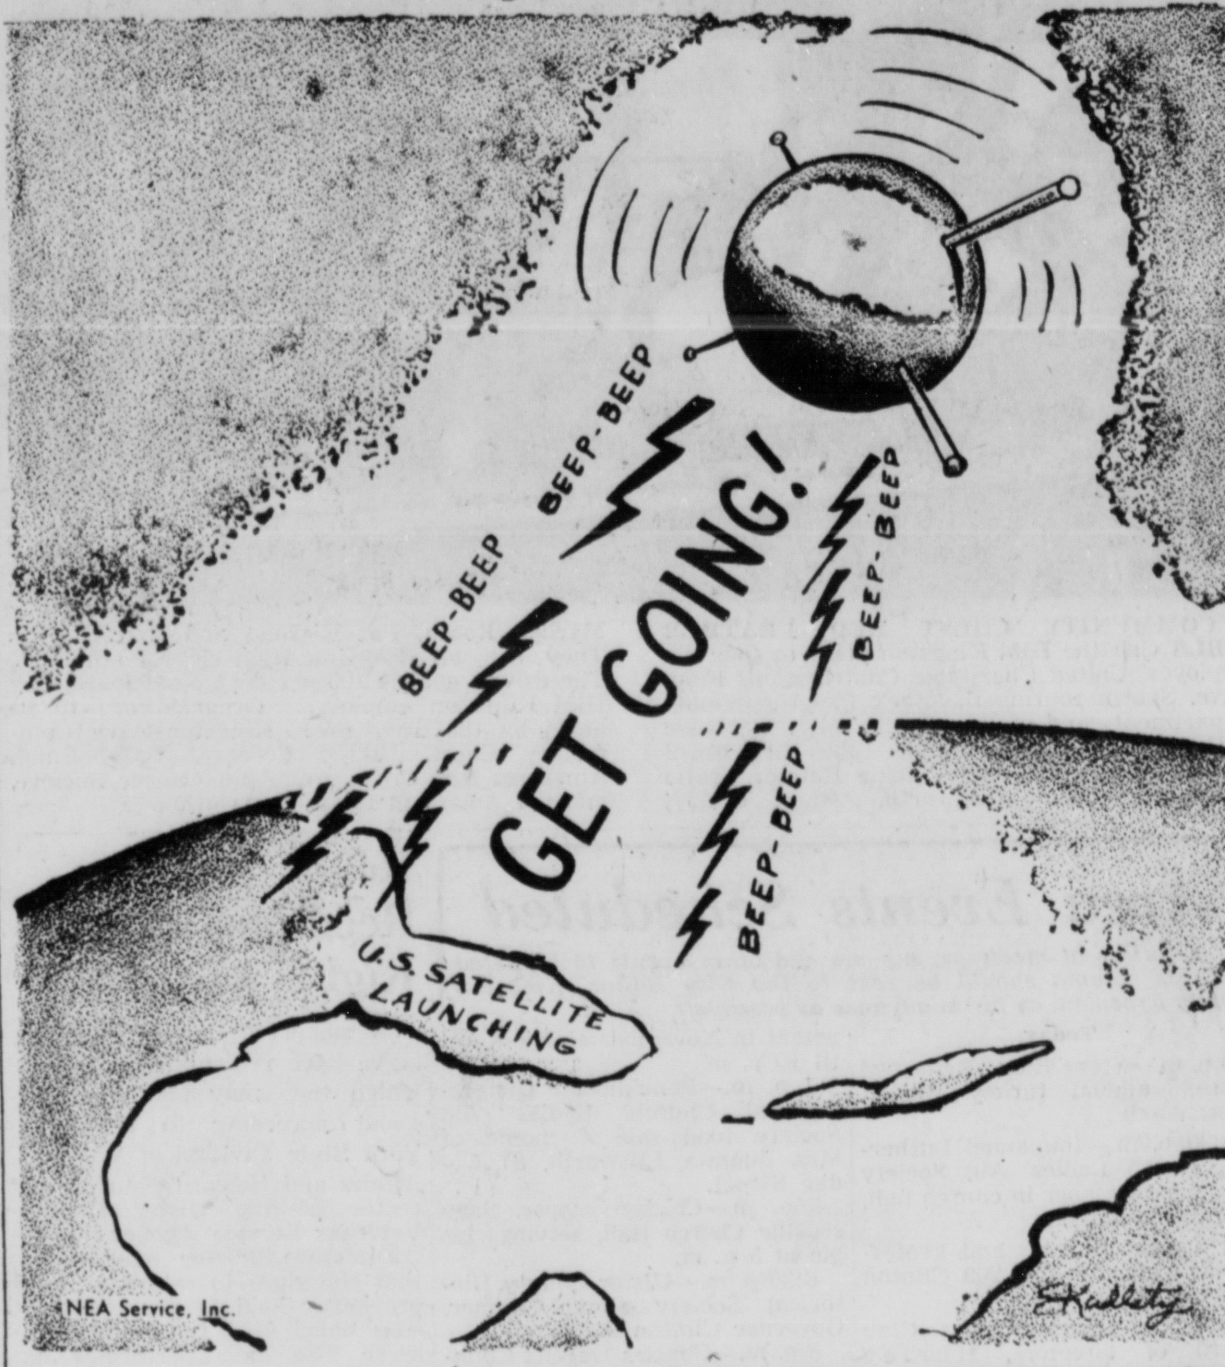

Q—Please tell me what kind of doctor should be consulted about removing a tattoo?—Mrs. M. J.

A—If your own doctor does not know of a reliable place to have this done, a skin specialist probably would.

Message From the Skies

Washington News

BY PETER EDSON
NEA Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON—(NEA)—The United States' goal in current United Nations General Assembly debate is to get a strong vote of approval on American-British-Canadian-French disarmament proposals. These include a plan for control of outer space missiles.

This plan was rejected by the Russians in the five-power disarmament subcommittee talks in London last summer. But now Communist boss Khrushchev says Russia is ready for talks with the United States on missile controls.

President Eisenhower replies that these talks can be made only as a part of the four-power proposals now before the United Nations.

This four-power plan is an extremely complex first-step proposal toward partial disarmament. It has been outlined to the General Assembly by Secretary of State Dulles and to the Security Council by Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge Jr.—in different language—as a six-point plan. But it really has 10 principal provisions. In oversimplified form they are:

REDUCTION OF U. S. and U.S.S.R. armed forces to 2.5 million men, then 2.1 and ultimately 1.7.

Full exchange of reports on all military expenditures.

Nuclear weapons to be used only for defense.

Fissionable materials to be produced for peaceful uses only and stockpiled under international inspection.

Nuclear weapons testing banned for two years.

Outer space missiles limited to peaceful uses only.

Reciprocal inspection to guard against surprise attack.
Create an International Control Organization—ICO.
Regulation of export and import of designated armaments.
Suspension of convention on written notice to ICO.

In contrast to all this, the Soviet disarmament plan calls simply for ending all nuclear weapons testing and banning their use. This is much simpler to explain and therefore much better for Communist propaganda purposes.

SUCH A PLAN WOULD, of course, re-establish Russia's superiority through its greater manpower. The Russians are expected to introduce a resolution to ask the General Assembly to endorse their plan, and it may gain some strong support. But its acceptance is doubtful.

Here India steps into the picture with a proposal to create a new commission to which the General Assembly might refer the disarmament question for further study. The number of members is left blank in the revised Indian resolution.

The U. S. will probably oppose the Indian resolution for this reason:

The original UN disarmament commission consisted of the 11 Security Council members plus Canada. Even that small a group proved unwieldy. So the five-power subcommittee was created.

The four western powers now feel that it has come up with a plan that is workable and worth pushing.

RUSSIAN UNWILLINGNESS to submit to inspection is the basic block to acceptance of this plan. But the western powers believe Russian Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko and their UN Delegate Arkady A. Sobolev will have a hard time convincing the General Assembly that further consideration of the western plan by the old subcommittee is useless.

On the other hand, the United States is counting to a limited extent on the fact that Russia has said "No" before to other disarmament proposals — like open skies inspection and a first stage cut to 2½ million men — only to accept them later.

If the General Assembly can be argued into passing a strong resolution in favor of the four-power plan and urging the Security Council to give it priority consideration, it will be another halting step toward arms limitation, at least, if not disarmament.

Off Course

SHORT PUMP, Va.—A flamingo, which should have been seen flitting about palm trees and sandy tropical areas, turned up in a pond with three domestic ducks here. The three-and-a-half foot tall bird drew the attention of the Virginia Game Commission. Commission experts said it wasn't impossible for the bird to fly to Virginia, but highly improbable, and expressed the view that it had escaped from a bird dealer.

AS PEGLER SEES IT

By WESTBROOK PEGLER

Many of my fellow-citizens including colleagues in our noble profession have evinced surprise over certain parliamentary procedures of the high-hoodlums of many of the big unions at their periodic hilarities on Miami Beach. It was news to them that such conventions could be fixed. I envy their innocence and will not shock their infant sensibilities with gross explications of the beautiful mystery of love and the truth about babies.

However, as one whose illusions were sullied long ago, I feel bound to do my duty as I see it and can say only that I will treat the facts as gently as the circumstances let me.

First, be it understood that an "international" union is a practical duplicate of the Republican and Democratic political parties. It is a private organization and its conventions, like the political consistories, generally are corrupt in keeping with the character of its dignitaries. But the union has none of the legal public obligations which have been breathed into the political parties not so much by statute as by ignorance, carelessness and superstition. A Republican or Democrat can resort to the courts for writs to compel rail thieves to refrain from doing certain horrid but conventional things and the writs may issue, not that that will do any good or make any difference.

So, all right, now we understand why big unions would not willingly forego conventions and I might add without fear of too successful dispute that the same goes for the solemn quadrennials of the political hooibinders. The boss hoodlums go for the fun or, if they are too old for that sort of mischief, to sit in the lobbies and watch elephantine juniors tiptoeing past the house dicks when the moon begins to set.

The president, secretary-treasurer, numerous vice-presidents and members of the executive board or council name all chairmen and members of all committees. The most important of these, as in the political conventions, is the committee of credentials. This is the one which disqualifies the Taft delegates, as it were, and with this implied reproach to the scoundrels of the opposition, seats the Eisenhower slate. The floor of the convention is now packed with the henchmen of the ruling mob and the rest is rignarole though not necessarily dull.

For example, a dissident brother, full of outrage and booze, may set up incoherent bawling from the midst of a bunch of administration stalwarts who are naturally embarrassed to find such a loudmouth among them. One of them slugs him from behind and the chair declares him to be plainly

No matter what she has on, a girl projects.

—Eight-year-old Lee Cray of Edmunds, Wash., on the man who kidnapped him.

The free world must rely on those terrible (nuclear) weapons as their only defense against the Red army, which, combined with the armies of the Warsaw Pact countries, the free countries can never hope to equal.

'Missiles' Urged to Carry Moral Messages to World

By DAVID LAWRENCE

WASHINGTON—There is great need of an inter-continental missile—but it's a missile that should be aimed at destroying the evil in the human heart. For it isn't the atom bomb or the ballistic missile that constitutes a threat to mankind—it's the mind and hand of government that triggers the use of these lethal weapons.

Propaganda is a much-abused word. But the said truth is that, despite the whirl of an iron ball around the world in 96 minutes there is as yet no effective means of communication between a free people and enslaved people. Congress shows a surprising indifference to the problem.

What is vital is not just mechanical ingenuity, or a sense of urgency, or the co-ordination of bureaucratic effort, but something else far more important—a willingness to acknowledge error in ourselves and a willingness to furnish an example of righteous living as a nation.

Biggest Sin

For the dropping of the atom bomb was our biggest sin. Within a few days after the news of Hiroshima came in August, 1945, this writer denounced the decision to use that awful weapon without warning and against a city of civilians. It is still a crime for which America stands convicted before humanity. America has never acknowledged its error. For the bomb was aimed not at conventional military targets but at helpless men, women and children in a big city in Japan.

Today the world is talking of intercontinental missiles, and an almost hysterical passion has seized Americans who are demanding that everything else be sidetracked and billions of dollars be spent to perfect a weapon which will kill human beings indiscriminately—without worrying about military targets.

The United States at the outset of World War II, speaking through President Franklin Roosevelt, appealed to the belligerents to avoid bombing civilians in unfortified cities. But Hitler scorned the appeal and, before the war was over, all belligerents—including the United States—were bombing men, women and children everywhere in Europe and Asia.

Pacifism No Answer

Pacifism or nonresistance is no answer, of course, to the ills of the world. Military preparation and a threat of massive retaliation are today rightly held as a deterrent to possible war. But the battle for morality—the greatest influence that can be exerted to reach peoples who alone can participate in and sanction war—is being lost. The rule of expediency seems to be dominant. In America, where idealism is often professed, there are today many exponents of surrender and submission. Not withstanding, for instance, all the evil perpetrated by Red China in killing and wounding in the Korean war nearly 137,000 Americans as well as thousands of soldiers from other countries—fighting in behalf of the United Nations to repel aggression—there are important newspapers and men in public life who would today embrace the Red China gangster. They argue it is "expedient." They would also recognize the "status quo" in Eastern Europe. They would not demand a word of repentance from the criminals—they would give the blessing of the free world to the vicious rules who have enslaved hundreds of millions of human beings.

So "communication" is needed not only outside but inside America. The task is to convert those in our midst who preach doctrines of expediency and who blandly forsake the doctrines of morality.

What difference does it make to the imprisoned souls of the Soviet Union and Eastern Europe whether an iron ball spins around the earth in an hour and a half? What difference does it make to them which nation wins the race in perfecting this or that weapon? Their question is: How long are they to endure the tyranny that has enslaved them? and what can the rest of the world do to aid them? Is "liberation" a dead issue, now to put into a deep freeze while so many of us applaud the scientists of Soviet Russia and call for bigger and deadlier weapons in the race to be first in "organized murder"—which is what Lloyd George once called war?

Slogan of Hour

Billions for death-dealing weapons, particularly for ballistic missiles—this is the slogan of the hour—but only a few piddling pennies for information missiles that could stimulate people to rid themselves of evil rulers.

Where are the scientists who can perfect an effective means of transmitting ideas? This doesn't call merely for inventors of electronic devices to carry messages but for moral leaders, inside and outside of government, to become convinced that it is primarily the heart and minds of peoples which must be won. This cannot be achieved unless we ourselves are cleansed of our own sins of omission and commission and unless in public policies we maintain our ideals.

For, as we forsake idealism and start conceding the right of tyrants to be recognized and abridged as the legitimate masters of helpless peoples, and as we sanction their acts of conquest, we ignore the basic need for "missiles" to stimulate those same enslaved peoples to rid themselves of their tyrannical rulers. It's still a struggle of ideas in the world—and ideas properly communicated can be more powerful than any military missile ever invented. (Reproduction Rights Reserved) out of order. The insurrecto persists, however, and the chair calls on the sergeant-at-arms to quell him. This is done by main strength, often with superficial contusions, lacerations and abrasions. The chair now recognizes a brother from Springfield, Mo. who desires to spread on the record his personal compliments to the grand worthy president by way of promoting his own candidacy for regional plenipotentiary over some 200 locals.

The committee next in importance after the committee on credentials, which decides who shall vote on what, is the committee on resolutions, which analyzes all resolutions for subversive language and intent. Resolutions hostile or embarrassing to the administration and filed in the wastebasket and others are referred to other committees such as committee on organization, committee on constitution and laws; committee on adjustments and appeals and committee on committees. Most resolutions never are heard of again.

By this means, disruptive elements are kept in abeyance and the floor is cleared for glorious laudations in the competitive rites wherein the president et al are nominated to succeed themselves.

This creates an atmosphere of good will so strident that a motion to suspend the constitutional method of balloting by delegations is carried with whole tumults to spare and the entire list is retained for another four years by acclamation.

No court has ever established authority to interfere with such activities. And though the present federal courts undoubtedly could create their own pretext to interfere, the judges and the hoodlums are, after all, old grads of the same political school who learned their morals in the same book. SOVIET KEEPS EYE ON RESTIVE POLAND
—Moscow is keeping a wary eye on Poland, where the recent three-day rioting by Warsaw students suggested possibility of a large-scale revolt. With Poland lying directly at the Red army's main line of communications between Russia and East Germany, as Newsmap shows, the Soviets are not expected to stand idly by. Russia has troops within Poland, headquartered at Lignica. Its tank regiments are poised on Poland's eastern and western boundaries and could rip across the country in hours. Russian troops patrol every mile of the East-West highway, indicating the Red's distrust of Polish army. Critical group in Poland is the well-organized and politically conscious factory workers. Vanguard of the June, 1956, Poznan rebellion, if they take up the students' cause, it is expected there would be serious trouble.

Little Understanding Helps

Honesty, Fairness Goal Of Buffalo's Woman Judge

BUFFALO — The defendant, unshaven and ragged, was charged with vagrancy. He stood before the city judge, a woman, who frowned and flapped the folds of her black robe.

She asked him: "Have you ever been before me prior to today?" "No, ma'am," he answered, "but I heard there was a woman judge in these parts and I also heard she was pretty nice."

Judge Madge Taggart smiled: "Suspended sentence," she said. "I'll show you that women are really susceptible to flattery."

Frank Rejoinder

The frank rejoinder from the bench has become a trademark of Judge Taggart, the first woman ever elected to city court in Buffalo, a city of over half a million. "I suppose I'll get in trouble for it some day," she said. "I try to be honest and impartial; but some things, well, they just strike me a certain way and I say what I think. They don't affect my decisions, though."

Attendants at city court are quick to express their respect and admiration for her. They say she handles cases with painstaking thoroughness. When the occasion arises, she speaks her mind. For example—a defendant asked for leniency on a charge of being drunk and disorderly.

Judge Taggart scolded: "You're not a man; you're a cry-baby."

Here you are at the age of 32 and you can't take care of your family. You're healthy aren't you? It wouldn't be because you drink too much, would it?"

Takes Troubles Home

In a civil case a woman once rambled on and on, telling the court how a man had struck her. When Judge Taggart tried to quiet her a moment, she complained: "I have a concussion."

"You'll have another if you don't keep quiet," Judge Taggart said.

The attractive judge has only one complaint: "Every day I take home a handful of other people's troubles."

Does it bother her? "Sure, it affects me. If it didn't affect me, I probably shouldn't be on the bench. Hearing case after case—muggings, robberies, fights, domestic quarrels—I'd go crazy if I couldn't look back and see where a little understanding helped straighten someone out."

"That's what makes it all worth it—being able to help someone who's in trouble."

Miss Taggart, who invokes the woman's privilege not to tell her age, was appointed to the city court bench in July 1952 to fill a vacancy.

She had been a city court clerk for 11 years and an assistant district attorney for nine years. She graduated from the University of Buffalo Law School in 1920. A Republican, she lost a close election for the seat in November 1952 and was appointed to fill another vacancy two months later. In 1953 she won, 102,000 to 79,000, in an election in which her party lost the mayoralty and control of the Common Council.

Popular With Voters
As well as being popular with the voters collectively, Miss Taggart also had a mysterious individual admirer. The case of the "secret admirer" began in July 1952 when she first became judge. Bouquets of flowers began arriving regularly. An accompanying card was signed only, "Esquire."

After she lost the election that November, a big bouquet of American Beauty roses arrived with a card that read: "Don't take it so hard, darling. Mais ou sont les neiges d'antan?" (Where are the snows of yesteryear?).

And for Christmas there came five giant poinsettia plants. Judge Taggart tried to find out who "Esquire" was. "He must be well-educated," she said. "He must have money to spare too. I want to know whether he'll have the courage to declare himself. This is his last chance. I'll set the deadline for December 31st. After that I'll . . . I'll turn this case over to Dick Tracy."

The tenth and apparently the last bouquet came a week later, Jan. 1, 1953. To this day the identity of Judge Taggart's secret admirer remains a mystery.

Child Health Clinic

A Child Health Conference conducted by the Ulster County Health Department will be held at the Tumor Clinic Building, 400 Broadway, on Tues., Oct. 22 from 9:15 to 10:15 a. m. These clinics are limited to infant and preschool children for the purpose of improving child health through early recognition of defects, advice regarding nutrition, instruction of parents in understanding of growth and development, handling of minor behavior difficulties and the administering of immunizations for smallpox, diphtheria, tetanus and whooping cough. These are well child clinics for the maintenance of health and prevention of disease, not for the care of the sick child. Children under the regular health supervision of their own physician are not admitted unless the physician desires this service to be taken over by the Child Health Conference. In this manner, duplication of service is avoided, facilitating the work of the private physician.

Court Will Decide Owner of Wallet

JOHNSON CITY — The police chief plans to let the Broome County court decide who owns a money-filled wallet found on a city street.

Chief Floyd Allen said the wallet contained between $3,000 and $10,000. He would not reveal the exact amount.

It was found Saturday by a 14-year-old boy, Ransom Varney. It contained no identification.

John A. Tomik, an Endicott Johnson Corporation employee, has claimed the wallet. Police said Tomik was able to describe it and name the exact amount of money it contained.

But Allen said he would let the court decide on the ownership. If it is not claimed successfully in 90 days, Allen said, Ransom Varney will be the new owner.

Boy, 11, Is Hero Of Cohoes Fire

COHOES (AP) — Eleven-year-old George Gamache was a hero today to his mother and three younger brothers.

Carrying his baby sister, George led the boys to safety across a narrow second-story ledge last night when fire destroyed their apartment. The mother, Mrs. Eleanor Halacy, was out.

George discovered the fire shortly after it broke out in a shop on the first floor of the three-story brick structure.

He picked up Edith Ann, 2, and ordered the boys, Raymond, 10, Robert, 8, and Roger, 6, to follow him. He led them 12 feet along the footwide ledge in the window of an adjoining apartment.

There was no exact estimate of the damage, which was extensive. The cause of the fire was undetermined.

Fire Chief Harold Grogan said the fire was confined to the rear of the building, where it shot up porches of all three floors. The front portions were damaged by smoke and water.

Rosendale Names

ters of explanation, but the one asking the Kingston police department probe said:

"We, the undersigned, hereby petition the Honorable Averell Harriman, Governor of the State of New York, to order an extraordinary term of the Supreme Court of the State of New York to be convened and the appointment of a Special Prosecutor in and for the County of Ulster, to investigate recent exposures of police corruption in the City of Kingston caused by the apathy and inefficiency of public officials in the City of Kingston and to further investigate the reported inefficient handling of the ensuing investigation by the Police Department of the City of Kingston and the District Attorney of Ulster County."

Cooperation Pledged

All local officials, city and county, have pledged cooperation in the police investigation, which, to date, has not gone beyond the office of Reuter, 270 Broadway, New York.

He asked, in a statement, earlier this week, that all persons having what they might consider as helpful information to contact him at his office.

Identity of persons cooperating would not be disclosed. Reuter said, but he denied that he or his office had made any mention of such protection because of "fear of reprisals" as was stated in an Albany newspaper.

DA Would Give Data

The district attorney's office, it was indicated today, was prepared to forward whatever information Reuter needed. District Attorney Howard C. St. John, in a statement made, as soon as the requested probe was announced, said that he would cooperate to the fullest extent.

It was noted today that the Kingston Patrolmen's Association had decided to retain counsel because of a heavy docket of affairs concerning association matters. The move was made, it was said, in the best interests of the department members who have many years of service ahead as loyal police officers.

Early Talk of Petition

It was also noted today that long before announcement of the petition asking state investigation of the police department of the probe, there had been talk of a petition being circulated by members of the families and friends of patrolmen who were called to give testimony before the grand jury.

The local probe resulted in nine patrolmen being indicted. One is serving a sentence in Dannemore and another in the county jail. Three have received suspended sentences and other cases are pending. The investigation came of the arrest of two patrolmen on burglary charges last July 10.

Community...

of establishing a Community College.

Dean Is Speaker

Dr. Lawrence L. Jarvie, executive dean of Institutes and Community Colleges for the State University of New York, spoke to the group and answered a number of questions.

He called attention to the fact that a Community College had recently been set up in Dutchess County, using the facilities of an abandoned hospital. The hospital was a gift from the city of Poughkeepsie, assessed in value by the state at $524,000.

The state matched the value of the property in cash, Jarvie said.

No Cost to Community

The Community College in that county, therefore, is in business with no cost to the community and half a million dollars from the state for modernization, etc. Rigby told The Freeman today, "This is the way we would like to do it."

He would like to see the college established with state money, and as little cost to the local community as possible, he said.

There was a request from the floor that the sentiments of those present be recorded. The result was unanimous in favor of recommending to the Board of Supervisors that it take steps to establish the college.

Groups Backing Project

The following excerpts from resolutions by area organizations were read into the record by Rigby:

The Kingston Kiwanis Club resolution in part, stated: "Mindful of recently imposed hardships placed upon prospective college students of our college tuition costs and higher academic standards designed to relieve overcrowded colleges of the potential enrollments which they cannot accommodate."

The Kingston Lions Club resolution contained this paragraph: "Our young men and women educated in this environment would be encouraged to remain and live their lives among us."

The Kingston Rotary Club adopted a resolution at a regular meeting stating that the club "unanimously gives its support to the creation of a Community College in Ulster County."

Two paragraphs of the B'nai B'rith Lodge No. 13, resolution contained the following statement: "This is a distinct advantage, both economically and culturally, to having additional college level education facilities available locally."

A letter from the Ulster Chapter of the New York State Society of Professional Engineers contained this statement: "At our last meeting a motion was made and unanimously carried to support any efforts to bring a Community College to Kingston."

A resolution adopted by the board of directors of the Kingston Area Chamber of Commerce contained this statement: "There is a distinct advantage, both economically and culturally, to having additional college level education facilities available locally."

Others Favor Idea

In his report, Rigby also referred to favorable resolutions passed by several organizations in Highland and Saugerties, although copies were not available as part of the resolution and report presented to the Ulster County Board of Supervisors.

In addition to the resolutions, several letters were included in Rigby's report. A letter from Roscoe L. Williams, supervising principal of the Red Hook Central School, said in part: "However, it is our studied opinion that the rapid population growth in the Mid-Hudson area will make community colleges near both Poughkeepsie and Kingston quite desirable. Since Kingston is now only seven miles from Red Hook by the new bridge, and Poughkeepsie is twenty-two miles, our people would tend to use the college facilities located in Kingston."

Important, Says Soper

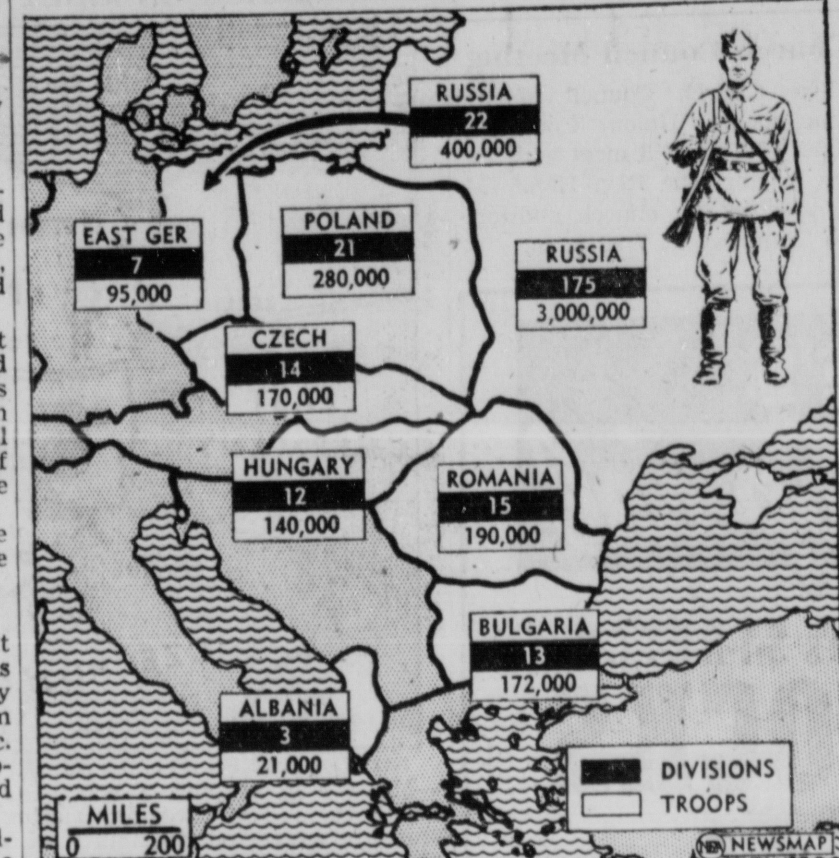

Earl F. Soper, superintendent of the Kingston City Schools, wrote a letter to the Advisory Committee containing these statements: "I sincerely feel that I would be remiss as an educator if I didn't encourage you in this work and, through you, the Ulster County Board of Supervisors in consummating this educational ideal for the Kingston area. It would be of tremendous benefit to the high school youth in the entire county. It has been my pleasure to discuss the matter with a number of my professional friends recently. Each and every one has favored the proposition and added a personal note by saying, 'You know I am personally interested because I have a child of my own.'"

A letter was also received from Dr. Lester A. Sonking, president of the Medical Society of the County of Ulster. He stated that a resolution favoring the establishment of a Community College would be presented at their next regular meeting which would contain the following statement in its preamble: "There is a distinct advantage, both economically and culturally, to having additional college level educational facilities available locally."

Another resolution was received from the Saugerties Area Chamber of Commerce and, in sentiment, follows very closely the above resolutions.

RED MILITARY STRENGTH—Estimates by U. S. authorities indicate that Russia and its satellites have some 4,468,000 men under arms. While the United States is conducting a sweeping face-lifting of its own 200,000-plus army in Europe for possible future atomic warfare, the Soviets have been making similar preparations. In addition to its huge force at home, Russia has 22 divisions in East Germany. These troops, equipped with atomic weapons, are at peak combat readiness and will be until a new training cycle starts in December, when new recruits are sent in annually to replace discharges. Figures on Newsmap give breakdown by countries. Bulgaria's 13 divisions are considered by the Soviets as the most "trustworthy" of the satellite armies. Albania's three divisions are considered under strength. The situation in Hungary is confused due to last year's rebellion. The army deserted to the revolutionaries and the Soviets are trying to reorganize it. But it no longer can be considered an effective military force.

Syria Bids UN Probe Threats To Security

UNITED NATIONS (AP)—Syria today formally requested the U. N. General Assembly to consider alleged threats to her security.

The move will open the way for a full airing of the Turkish-Syrian border tension. Each side has accused the other of threatening peace by massing troops along their common frontier.

The proposal for the debate was in the form of a letter asking that a new item be added to the agenda of the 82-annual Assembly entitled "Threats to the peace and security of Syria." The title did not refer to Turkey by name.

The letter requested the establishment of an impartial U. N. committee to investigate the alleged threats.

Johnstown Water At Critical Stage

JOHNSTOWN (AP)—Mayor Harvey W. Mansfield said today that this Mohawk Valley city's water supply was reaching a "very critical stage."

He banned all car washing and the use of hoses. In addition, he asked restaurants not to serve water with meals unless requested by customers.

Mansfield did not say how much water remained in the city reservoir, fed by springs.

IBM Layoff Denied

C. F. McElwain, general manager of the IBM Military Products Division, told The Freeman this afternoon there is "absolutely no truth" to any reports of a layoff.

Teenagers Jailed For Grand Larceny

Three teenagers who allegedly stole a car in Boston Monday night were apprehended at Red Hook yesterday by State Police after Trooper Daniel Kelly of the Rhinebeck station became suspicious and gave chase. Near Red Hook one of the trio, a juvenile, was apprehended when the car failed to make a turn at high speed and struck a tree. Two others, Richard Murphy, 16, of 135 Falcon Street, East Boston, and Robert King, 16, of 81 Maverick Street, East Boston, took to the woods but were later apprehended.

Arraigned last evening before Police Justice Howard Coon of Red Hook, charged with grand larceny and being fugitives, they were committed to the Dutchess County Jail.

Trooper Kelly, who had been alerted the car was traveling toward this area, became suspicious when he saw the car going south near Red Hook, and gave chase. At Red Hook the driver attempted to turn off Route 9 and the car struck a tree. The three occupants separated but Kelly followed one and apprehended him. Other troopers were alerted and the woods searched. The other two were apprehended about a half hour and half later in a wooded area. Ten troopers were involved in the search of the area before the last two were placed under arrest.

Calls Link 'Smear'

NEW YORK (AP)—The wife of a convicted spy says testimony linking her with alleged Soviet master spy Rudolf I. Abel is a "smear."

Reino Hayhanen, a confessed Soviet spy, said in Brooklyn federal court yesterday that on two occasions Abel had ordered him to arrange for the payment of $5,000 to Mrs. Helen Sobell, wife of Morton Sobell. Sobell is serving a 30-year term in Alcatraz for his alleged role in the Rosenberg atom spy ring.

East Berlin Bids Other Nations Follow Tito Lead

BERLIN (AP)—Communist East Germany today called upon other nations to follow the lead of Yugoslavia in recognizing its Stalinist regime.

Banner headlines in the Red East Berlin newspapers jubilantly welcomed the Yugoslav act that cracked the diplomatic quarantine the west had built around the German satellite state.

Neues Deutschland, the Communist Party newspaper, declared Marshal Tito's government now accepts the reality that "two German states exist."

European security and solution of the "German problem" depends on other nations following Yugoslavia's example, the newspaper asserted.

Western officials conceded that the East Germans had something to crow about. Yugoslavia is the first nation outside of the Soviet bloc to set up diplomatic ties with East Germany. The west had sought to keep the Russian puppet regime isolated in hopes this would hasten reunification of Germany through free elections.

Angry West Berliners and West Germans waited to see if Chancellor Konrad Adenauer would be good on his threat to break off diplomatic ties with any nation recognizing East Germany. Government sources in Bonn predicted he would send a strong protest to Belgrade and would do nothing more. Other sources in West Berlin anticipated a diplomatic break.

It was unanimously approved by the qualified voters of the fire district. The board noted that approval of the proposal will not result in any increase of fire district taxes for the year 1958. The total budget for the year 1958 is $1,000,000. The board explained.

Nov. 5 Approval

which is played in many parts of the state now under various guises and dodges.

In 1954, both the Democratic and Republican parties pledged in their campaign platforms to make bingo a legitimate pastime.

Final action was delayed until this year by the requirement that proposed amendments to the Constitution must win approval of two separately elected Legislatures before they may be submitted to the voters.

The 1955 and 1957 Legislatures approved the proposal overwhelmingly.

Voter approval on Nov. 5 will not mean that bingo can come out into the open in your community the next day. The amendment is limited by a local-option feature.

This means that, before the game can be played in any community, the residents will have to vote on it again—in the form of a local proposition, at either a special or general election.

Further Restrictions

Once the local hurdle is cleared, there are still further restrictions on the game, such as the one limiting sponsorship to non-profit groups.

The Legislature has passed laws that would set up a state lottery control commission to act as a watchdog over bingo. Mission: To keep the racketeers out.

The legislation would limit admission charges to $1 a person. A single prize could be valued at no more than $250 and a series of prizes at no more than $1,000.

Only members of the sponsoring non-profit group could manage the game. No one could be paid as manager.

Dutchess Hit Hard

In Dutchess County seven schools of the Arlington area are closed and the Wappingers schools are also closed and all Poughkeepsie schools have been closed for the week, it was reported by Dr. Raymond Fear, District State Health Officer. Hyde Park School is also closed and the Cardinal Farley School was also scheduled to close.

Closing of the Ontario Central Schools was ordered today after Dr. Charles Quinn had consulted with the county health officials and it was decided flu had reached "epidemic" proportions.

Games Cancelled

All activities at the school will cease this afternoon, the football game scheduled for Saturday between Ontario and Marbletown Central School has been canceled and all other activities, including adult programs have been halted.

Not only has the school been hard hit by absenteeism among students but there were 11 staff members out today. Principal Moehle reported 422 students out today. In the high school 41 per cent of students were absent; 25 per cent in the elementary schools for an overall absenteeism of 31 per cent.

All State Schools Hit by Illness

ALBANY (AP)—Influenza, currently the number one pain-in-the-neck for school administrators as well as victims, now has blanketed all of New York State.

The illness, some of it the Asian type, struck thousands of school children and has thrown school schedules into disarray. Comparatively crowded classrooms provide a good field for the fast-stepping virus.

Troubled Areas

Hardest hit yesterday were sections of Dutchess County, in southeastern New York, and parts of Cattaraugus and Allegany counties in the west.

Dozens more schools were closed. Some of these had just reopened after week-long shutdowns.

In Troy, the city's three hospitals banned visitors, except in emergencies, in a move designed to prevent patients from contracting flu.

Endorse Vaccine

Meanwhile, the Conference of County, City and District Health Officers, at a meeting here yesterday, endorsed the state health commissioner's recommended dosage of Asian flu vaccine. The amounts range from one-tenth of a cubic centimeter for adults.

In Cattaraugus County, new school closings included seven in Salamanca and two in Olean. The Ellicottville and Little Valley schools, also in the county, were closed again after re-opening on Monday.

In Allegany County, seven schools were closed.

Other Closings

Other school closings reported yesterday: Union-Endicott Central School District, Broome County, and two parochial schools in Endicott; Tioga Central School District; Hudson Falls High School; Fort Edward High School and two parochial schools in Schenectady; Westfield Central School and Clymer Central School in Chautauque County.

Public and parochial schools in Amsterdam, re-opened Monday, were ordered closed for a second week because 1,700 pupils were absent.

In Troy, Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute reported 15 to 20 per cent absenteeism among 3,000 students. The RPI interfraternity weekend festivities, scheduled for the coming weekend, were cancelled, as was the RPI-Union football game and other athletic events that had been scheduled for Saturday in Troy. Classes continued.

Flu also struck the Kings Point Merchant Marine Academy and put the football team's four quarterbacks in the hospital.

May Escape Suspension

WASHINGTON (AP)—The possibility was raised today that the scandal-tainted Tenmeters Union may escape a threatened AFL-CIO suspension if the union is put in charge of a court-appointed receiver.

James R. Hoffa has been elected president of the giant union, succeeding Dave Beck. But his plans to take over the 1½ million member organization right away have been stopped by a federal court order.

The court order remains in effect pending a hearing Monday before Federal District Judge F. Dickinson Letts on the legality of the convention which elected Hoffa. The court has been asked to name a receiver to take charge of the union temporarily.

Francis Hopkinson, a signer of the Declaration of the Independence, was also a song writer.

BBC Now Bans Queen's Critic

LONDON (AP)—Lord Altrincham, the nobleman whose criticism set off the current running controversy over Britain's royal family, said today he also has been banned by the British Broadcasting Corp.

The reported blacklisting of the 33-year-old critic of Queen Elizabeth II followed cancellation Monday of a BBC television appearance by journalist Malcolm Muggeridge, author of an article in a current U. S. magazine entitled, "Does England Really Need a Queen?" Muggeridge called the monarchy "a kind of royal soap opera."

Altrincham, who made remarks about the Queen and her court circle in a British magazine last August, had been scheduled to appear on a TV panel Nov. 1. He said a BBC official telephoned him and "pointed out that as they had prevented Muggeridge from appearing, they would have to extend the ban to me."

Altrincham said the action was "damn silly" because "after all these things must be discussed." "I am appalled at the pathetic twittering attitude of the BBC," Altrincham added.

The pro-Labor Daily Mirror expressed the suspicion that Prime Minister Macmillan personally intervened to bar the critics from the state-supported BBC.

"The view is being taken by some people that it is a bad idea to risk any criticism of monarchy during the Canadian tour," the paper said.

The flames ignited two small buildings and for a time threatened about 37 homes between Olean and Weston Mills.

The Conservation Department reported a forest fire had burned about 40 acres near Clintonville, Essex County.

A 15-acre fire in the Town of Springwater, Livingston County, was reported under control. Another fire in the town was extinguished after it had burned over two acres.

World News In Brief

Alliance Bid Fails

LONDON (AP)—Leaders of Western Europe's socialists turned a cold shoulder today to Nikita S. Khrushchev's invitation for an alliance against alleged U. S.-Turkish threats to attack Syria.

Khrushchev's appeal was the second dramatic move within three days to back up the Syrian charges against Turkey and the United States. Egypt's President Nasser sent troops to Syria Sunday.

Warn on Complacency

WASHINGTON (AP)—The top two members of the House Appropriations Committee said today that Russia's launching of a satellite doesn't necessarily require increased U. S. defense spending.

What it does mean, said Chairman Cannon (D-Mo) and Rep. Taber (R-NY), senior GOP member of the committee, is that the United States must cease being complacent, stop underestimating Soviet progress and concentrate on missile programs.

'Moon's' End Seen

WASHINGTON (AP)—A government scientist says Russia's Sputnik—which has circled the earth for 12 days—may plunge from its orbit and burst into flames within a week.

That view, expressed by Robert Jastrow of the Naval Research Laboratory here, generally runs counter to other western predictions that the satellite might remain aloft for several months, possibly a year.

Jastrow, a theoretical consultant at the laboratory, also said last night there were indications Sputnik was losing altitude. On a recent pass over Washington, he added, the satellite's altitude was estimated at 147 miles.

The Federal Reserve Board also called for a condition statement from its member banks as of the same day. There was no call from the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, which requires condition statements less frequently.

HIMROD (AP)—Two New York Central Railroad freight trains collided today injuring three men, none seriously, near this Yates County village.

The railroad said the collision occurred when a south-bound freight, backing north to drop off a car, was switched into the four-diesel unit of a northbound freight on a parallel track.

Three of the diesels and six of the northbound cars were derailed.

The injured all from the northbound train were: James R. Phillips of Corning, the engineer; Thomas Wurster of Campbell, a brakeman, and Raymond P. Smith of Corning, fireman.

All were treated and released at Penn Yan Hospital.

Railroad division headquarters at Jersey Shore, Pa., blamed the wreck on a malfunctioning switch.

Dulles Believes War Is Unlikely In Middle East

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of State Dulles said today the United States must be on guard against the possibility of an attack by Syria and Russia against Turkey.

Dulles said that in event of such an attack the United States would not leave the Soviet Union as a privileged sanctuary.

Along with his grim warning, Dulles said he thinks an outbreak of war in the Middle East is unlikely, largely because of the United Nations' focus of attention on the area.

At his first news conference in about six weeks Dulles said on the subject of Russia's Sputnik and intercontinental missiles that he thinks the Soviets may be ahead of the United States in this area of weapons.

But he declared emphatically that the United States now has and will have marked military superiority over the Russians because in part of this nation's lead in heavy bombers.

He said bombing planes were presently the more decisive weapon in modern forces.

In five or ten years, Dulles said, missiles may be the decisive weapon and it is important for the United States to push ahead in this field.

Mrs. William Arnold, 32, of New York City, who reportedly suffered brain injuries, is in Albany Hospital.

Lillie Higgins, 24, of the Bronx, is in the local hospital.

They were passengers in a car which struck the rear of a tractor-trailer at 6:55 Monday, shearing off the right side and top of the car. The accident occurred about three miles north of New Paltz.

Think It Through

By E. F. HUTTON
JUSTICE IS BLIND

From the invasion of Poland to Germany's surrender, World War II lasted a little over 5 years and 8 months, or 2,075 days. Battle deaths of all combatants totaled 15,220,251—an average of 7,335 a day. (If you include non-combatants and unformed men who later died of wounds, add 11,000,000 more.)

At Gettysburg, in the Civil War, the North and South lost 5,659 in three days.

In World War II, more soldiers died every average day than in all three days at Gettysburg, and this went on for 2,075 days.

One could describe World War II as 2,075 Gettysburgs.

These dead soldiers and sailors of 27 nations were the pick of their people. Practically all were conscripted, and nearly all were young.

"Life, to be sure, is nothing much to lose, but young men think it is, and we were young," as the poet Houseman wrote of the dead.

Well, we fought one war to get rid of the Kaiser—and got Hitler. Then we fought a second war to get rid of Hitler—and helped put "peace-loving" Stalin and Khrushchev in Hitler's saddle—a greater menace by far than the first two.

As between the present rights of individuals, and the rights of the dead and of all young men to be alive, and of our country to be safe, the solicitude of the Supreme Court for those who serve the Communist menace is grotesque.

WALLKILL — Ulster County Girl Scout Council Fund Drive to raise money for the Wallkill Girl Scout Association started this week with Mrs. George Brach as chairman.

The fund drive will continue until November 2, and the goal is $800 for Wallkill.

Every year 20 or more girls are on the membership waiting list. "We don't have a Red Feather Community Chest in Wallkill, Mrs. Brach said, but we do have the children in our schools and they should have the same opportunity to belong to Brownie, Girl Scout or Boy Scout troops as children in the cities. With so many mothers working today, the need for Girl Scouting is greater than ever," she said.

Kellar Is Named Head Of Estate Tax Attorneys

Norman Kellar, attorney for the State Tax Commission in Ulster County, was elected president of the Association of Estate Tax Attorneys of the State of New York, at a meeting held recently in the Herkimer County Court House, Herkimer.

The attorneys for the State Tax Commission in each county serve in several capacities. In the case of the owners of safe deposit boxes the law requires the box to be sealed after death. It can only be opened thereafter on order of the surrogate or waiver from the State Tax Commission and then only in the presence of the attorney for the State Tax Commission, who thereupon inventories all items of value in the safe deposit box.

The attorney for the State Tax Commission is later called upon to pass on computation of the state inheritance tax before the papers are submitted to the surrogate. He also represents the tax commission in cases of appeals from the taxing order of the surrogate.

AMERICAN MENU

Spicy Chicken Stuffing Has West Indian Flavor

SWEET POTATO STUFFING gives this roast chicken an authentic Jamaican flavor. Stuffing employs variety of herbs.

BY GAYNOR MADDOX,
NEA Food and Markets Editor

At an authentic Jamaican dinner given by the American Spice Trade Association, the food editor guests learned about chicken stuffed with spiced sweet potatoes and many other foods and spices grown on the island.

Tropical flowers, such as hibiscus and bougainvillea, added their beauty to this island feast in New York's Hotel Ambassador.

Roast Chicken, Jamaica Style
(6 servings)

Wash and wipe dry a 6-pound, ready-to-cook capon or roasting chicken. Sprinkle the inside of crop and body cavity lightly with salt and ground black pepper. Fill with sweet potato stuffing.

Fasten neck skin to the back of the neck with a skewer or toothpick. Fold wings flat against the body. Lace the abdominal cavity with a string and skewers to hold in the stuffing. The legs together and fasten to the tail. Place chicken on a rack in an open, shallow pan. Brush skin with 2 tablespoons melted butter or margarine.

Pour 1½ cups hot water over 1 stick butter or margarine. Let stand until melted. Dip in a clean white cloth, wring it out lightly and place over chicken. Cook in a preheated slow oven (325 degrees F.) 3 hours or until done.

If cloth dries out during cooking period, remove and dip again in hot water and melted butter or margarine and place over chicken. If breast, legs and neck have a tendency to brown too fast, cover with aluminum foil. Serve with brown gravy seasoned with salt, ground black pepper and garlic powder.

Sweet Potato Stuffing
(Sufficient for 6-pound chicken)

Combine 1½ cups mashed cooked sweet potatoes, 4½ cups toasted bread cubes (croutons), ¾ cup finely chopped celery, and 2 tablespoons instant minced onion. Cut 6 sausage links into ½-inch pieces, brown and add to the mixture. Discard the sausage fat.

Blend in 1½ teaspoons salt, ¼ teaspoon ground black pepper, ¼ teaspoon ground sage leaves, ½ teaspoon ground thyme leaves, ½ teaspoon ground marjoram leaves and 3 tablespoons melted butter or margarine.

Mix well and spoon the mixture lightly into the crop and body cavity of a 6-pound chicken. Close with skewers and lacing.

TOMORROW'S DINNER:
Roast chicken with spiced sweet potato stuffing, brown gravy, steamed rice, green beans, rolls, hearts of palm salad, pineapple sherbert, banana cake, coffee, tea, milk.

Discuss Infirmary Patients Services

Coordination of Patients' Services at the Ulster County Infirmary was discussed by over 50 people representing several Ulster County organizations at a recent meeting of the Rehabilitation Committee of the Ulster County TB & Health Association. The meeting was called by Mrs. William H. McNamee, chairman.

After various reports, plans were outlined for Christmas parties for patients at the Ulster County Tuberculosis Hospital and the Ulster County Infirmary. Committees will be set up for entertainment, Santa Claus gifts and refreshments.

In discussing the program for both institutions, it was decided that youth groups should be asked to participate in the various projects. Girl and Boy Scouts, the 4-H Club, Future Nurses of America, high school students, and others were mentioned as possible groups for youth participation.

Raphael Klein, chairman, and Mrs. Mary Myers of the entertainment committee, reported on monthly entertainments at the Tuberculosis Hospital. It was brought out that religious exercises were enjoyed by the patients. The Rev. Benjamin Scholten, representing the Ministerial Association, pledged their support for services at the institutions.

Miss Florence Cordts reported for several teams who are carrying on visiting and shopping services at the Ulster County Tuberculosis Hospital.

Miss Catherine Cater said that patients were receiving birthday cakes from the Junior Married Women of the YWCA. The Business and Professional Women of the "Y" keep the patients happy with cards or small gifts on their birthday.

It was brought out by members of the committee, headed by Mrs. Angela Gregory of Woodstock, that the sale of patient-made articles held at Montgomery Ward's store in Kingston, amounted to $101.10.

Miss Hazel M. Steed, executive secretary of the Ulster County TB and Health Association, reported for Dr. Herbert F. Schwartz, superintendent of the Ulster County Tuberculosis Hospital. Dr. Schwartz believes the work of the committee is extremely important in helping to keep patients content and happy while getting themselves well at the hospital. Rehabilitation service, Miss Steed reported, is one of the steps in the treatment of the whole patient.

Miss Rose Marie Feeney, representing Edward Murray, welfare commissioner, expressed the gratitude of his office and staff for the interest of this TB & Health Association Committee, in the nearly one hundred patients at the Ulster County Infirmary. She said many groups are interested in the patients' welfare and a coordinating committee will serve to spread this kindness over the 12 months of the year with entertainment and other services.

It was voted by those present that a service program be developed at the Infirmary similar to the one which works so successfully for the patients of the Ulster County Tuberculosis Hospital.

A report by the occupational therapist, Charles Tarsia, showed many articles made in the shops at the Ulster County Tuberculosis Hospital and the Ulster County Infirmary.

Among the groups represented at the meeting were: Music Society, Nan Goldrick; Saugerties Jaycees, Mrs. Donald Lawson; B'nai B'rith Auxiliary, Mrs. Charles Warshaw; St. Ursula Academy, Miss Catherine Cater; Seventh Day Adventist, Mrs. Mildred O'Dell; Democratic Women's Club, Mrs. Mary Myers; Future Nurses of America, Mrs. Katherine Ruzzo; Ministerial Society, the Rev. Benjamin Scholten; B & P Club, YWCA, Mrs. Anne M. Long; Girl Scouts, Mrs. Blanche Ennist; Junior League, Mrs. Harry Kaprelian; Kingston Jewish Community Center, Raphael Klein; Salvation Army, Capt. Foster Merritt; and many other individual members.

May Halt Service

ALBANY (AP)—The Public Service Commission today granted the New York Central Railroad and the Railway Express Agency conditional authority to end service at Stony Wold, Franklin County. Both companies may be required to resume service if the Stony Wold Tuberculosis Sanatorium is reopened by Dec. 1, 1958. The station served only that institution.

The railroad and the express agency applied last year for permission to discontinue service. They cited low revenue. But the PSC last April denied the request since negotiations were under way to reopen the sanatorium as a cerebral palsy center.

That plan was abandoned, but sanatorium officials are trying to interest another group in the hospital.

If the sanatorium does not reopen by Dec. 1, 1958, the PSC will make today's order permanent.

'Fusion Ticket'

A "fusion ticket" is a temporary coalition of two or more parties to oppose major parties, especially in judiciary and municipal elections.

Diner — Waiter, bring me a ham sandwich.
Waiter — With pleasure.
Diner — Nope, with mustard.

Skeptic (discussing Balaam's steed) — How is it possible for an ass to talk like a man?
Fundamentalist — Well, I don't see why it isn't as easy for a man to talk like an ass.

Two travelers in Ireland, coming home late one night, lost their way.

One — We must be in a cemetery. Here's a gravestone.
Other — Whose is it?
The more sober of the two, having struck a match, said, "More Sober One — I don't know but he seems to have lived to a ripe old age — 175."
Other — See if you can read the name?
Another match having been lit:
More Sober One — I don't know him. Some fellow called "Miles from Dublin."

A chap returned to his hotel late one night very much disturbed over the condition of a friend, who was promptly put to bed and a doctor called in.
The doctor examined the patient while the friend looked on. The symptoms were plain.
Physician — Do you see any pink elephants or skyblue tigers?
Patient (muttering) — No.
Physician — See any sea serpents or giraffes turning hand-springs on the rug?
Patient — No.
Physician (as he departed) — Well, you'll be all right when you sleep it off.
But the friend was far from satisfied.
Friend (confiding to the room clerk, over the desk) — Look here, my friend's in a bad fix. Did you hear him say he didn't see any elephants or tigers or sea serpents? Well, the room was full of 'em.

"Can't you break your date with my daughter?"

Milkman — Johnny, did you put water in the milk this morning?
New Hand — Yes, sir.
Milkman — Don't you know that is wicked, Johnny?
New Hand — But you told me to mix water in the milk.
Milkman — Yes, but I told you to put the water in first and pour the milk into it. Then, you see, we can tell the people we never put water in our milk.
The human being is an incurable optimist. He believes that he has a pretty good chance to win a lottery prize but that there is scarcely the slightest chance of his getting killed in a traffic accident.
Mace is a spice made from the outer coating of nutmeg; it is delicious in many cakes and cookies.

Returning as Musical

NEW YORK (AP)—"The Shanghai Gesture," one of Broadway's most lurid hits from way back in 1926, is being prepared for return to the White Way, decked out in musical trappings. The new version has been titled "The Golden Lotus." Robert Payne, poet and novelist, is doing the book, with Arnold Sundgaard preparing the lyrics and Dai K. Lee the music.

TOP MAN ON THE TOTAL POLE

A total of almost $10,000,000,000 was spent for advertising last year... and nearly a third of it was spent in daily newspapers. $3,235,600,000, to be exact.

That's more money in newspapers than ever before... more than in any other medium... more than in TV, radio, magazines and outdoor combined. And 1956 wasn't unusual.

Every year, newspapers are on top of the total pole. The reason is simple. For results, newspapers can't be topped. Use the daily newspaper as your basic advertising medium. Most advertisers do. The final totals for 1956:

Newspapers... $3,235,600,000

Television $1,209,900,000 | Magazines $794,700,000

Radio $570,700,000 | Outdoor $199,600,000

Do You Remember by Sophie Miller

With today's rising prices in everything with no end in sight it is interesting to read that there was a time that prices did go down.The Kingston Freeman and Journal of Tuesday, May 1, 1923 item reads: "Ulster Electric Light and Power Co. submits reduction plan to Chamber of Commerce."It seems the Saugerties Chamber of Commerce made an amicable agreement with the Ulster
E. L. & P. Co. and their representatives, Mr. Nightingale,
Mr. Lasher, Mr. Collier, Mr.
Marchant and Mr. Browning.Under the new schedule there was to be a reduction in the business rate of 10 per cent. The old rate, for instance was 16 cents, and up to 50 kilowatts the new rate 14 cents. From 50 to 120 kilowatts, 13 cents. From 120 to 170 kilowatts 12 cents. The rate for residence lighting etc., had been reduced about 30 per cent.
The old rate was 16 cents, according to the size of the house for 15 to 25 kilowatts. The new rate was to be 14 cents. From 50 to 60 kilowatts it was to be eight cents and after and above four cents.I wonder how many folks remember when the Ulster and Delaware trains used to leave Kingston at our Union Station several times a day and on May 12, 1923 it ran from KingstonPoint. Those were the days of the Day Line boats which brought up people from New York for the mountains. Of course the West Shore station in those days was a busy place with a news and candy stand and trains leaving and coming in all the time. Remember the $2 round trip excursion trains on Sundays?From the May 29, 1923 Kingston Freeman and Journal: "The new wage scale of the local plumbers calls for an $8 day and it has been signed by the master plumbers of the city. The new scale goes into effect June 15.
The present scale is $7 a day.
With the increase Kingston will now pay plumbers about the same wage scale as Poughkeepsie and Newburgh."

From same paper: "For the Memorial Day parade the Citizens' Band of 30 pieces has been engaged, and will be divided into two bands, one for the uptown parade, Drum Major James

In Electricity for Farmers

By JAMES C. MUNN

WASHINGTON (AP)—Back in 1935 only 57,825 of New York's farms had electricity. Today the total is estimated at 103,500 and, in the near future, it is expected to approximate 105,000—for a 98 per cent saturation of the state.Extension of services provided by private utility companies haslargely accounted for the increase.
But cooperatives, with financial aid from the Rural Electrification Administration (REA), have played a significant part.REA, since the granting of its first New York State loan, has approved five others for a total of $5,475,891 of which $5,057,000 has actually been advanced.The borrowers are the New York State Gas & Electric Corp., Ithaca (which has retired its loan), and cooperatives in Hartwick, Delhi, Bath, Cherry Creek and Bouckville.

More on Way

The six, according to, REA's records, operate a total of 3,128 miles of rural lines serving 11,084 farm consumers. The number soon will be increased to 13,266 when expansion programs, now underway, are completed.As the number of coop consumers has increased, so has the average consumption. In 1949, for example, farms used an average of 203 kilowatt hours (kwh) a month. Today the figure is 377 kwh.The increased use is further reflected by the rapidly with which the REA loans are being repaid.As of June 30, an REA spokesman said, the borrowers had paid $698,505 in interest and $2,535,924 on principal. The latter, REA says, is ahead of schedule in the amount of $280,462."The coverage in repayments," the spokesman said, "demonstrates the healthy financial condition of the five cooperatives."REA also has made four New York loans, totaling $1,073,000, to private telephone companies serving rural customers. The telephone phase of REA's loanings began in 1950.

Phones Not as High

The four companies now serve about 2,400 subscribers and, in the planning stage, are new facilities that will serve another 662.REA says the program to provide rural homes with telephones is not progressing as rapidly in New York State as in some others.
Nevertheless, on the basis of REA's latest figures, 82.9 per cent, or 87,643, of the state's farms were telephone equipped.The four companies availing themselves of REA financing are located in Rotterdam Junction, Chamont, Marathon and Prattsburg.A loan of $384,000 was approved last week for the Prattsburg company. The money will be used to convert the company's fourth exchange to the dial system and, additionally, construct 59 miles of new line and replacement of some line considered inadequate.Inherent in all REA loans to telephone companies is that the borrower will eventually, if not immediately, convert facilities to the dial system. REA does, however, make exceptions when circumstances dictate such action.Paltz Historical Group Gets AwardA letter from the office of the state historian to the secretary of the Huguenot Historical Society of New Paltz, Inc., has been received during the past week. The letter announces that the Society has been granted an Award of Merit of the American Association for State and Local History at a meeting of the Association in Columbus, Ohio during the first week of October.This is the first award of its kind to be granted the Huguenot Historical Society and it is hoped that when the certificate is available, an appropriate ceremony can be planned with Dr. Louis Jones, chairman of the awards committee.On Saturday, October 12, over fifty members of the Hasbrouck family met for lunch at the Old Fort, Huguenot Street, New Paltz. Following the lunch a meeting took place at 2 p. m.The purpose of the gathering of the descendants of Jean and Abraham Hasbrouck was to discuss the problem of caring for the Abraham Hasbrouck Homestead, the organizing of a family association and the plans for publishing the family genealogy.A number of branches of the family were represented and it was the unanimous opinion of the group that a family association should be formed. The committee of nine persons was authorized to continue the work of organization for a year at which time the group will elect officers.
The present committee consists of Paul D. Hasbrouck, Robert H.
Wylde, Mrs. Beatrice Wadlin, Mrs.
William F. Hasbrouck, Kenneth
E. Hasbrouck, Col. Augustin G.
Rudd, Gen. Sherman Hasbrouck,
Mrs. Linus DuRocher, and Mrs.
Robert Anderson.There are over 2,000 listed descendants with about 500 heads of families. A number of letters were received from members of the family that could not attend the meeting. About 100 have voiced a desire to become members of the Family Association immediately. The group hopes to work within the framework of the Historical Society.1958 ZENITH

Junior League Begins Library Project Here

The regular monthly meeting of the Junior League of Kingston was held Monday, Oct. 7, at 8 p. m. in the basement room of the Kingston City Library. Mrs. Bittles Mills was introduced to the Kingston League as an Inter-League member from Bethlehem, Pa.

N. Jansen Fowler addressed the Junior League on the current Community Chest drive and explained the role of Community Chest in Kingston and asked for the support of the League on an individual basis.

Mrs. William Hobbs, chairman of the Project Committee, asked Mrs. Richard Kuehne to give the background of the Library Interest Committee to the League. The Junior League of Kingston has started to work with this committee to decorate and plan a "Children's Room" at the Kingston City Library. Mrs. Kuehne reported on the pledges of other civic groups in the undertaking of this project.

Mrs. Robert MacKinnon introduced three guest speakers: Miss Ruth Walker, Children's Librarian in the Monroe-Harriman Schools;

Miss Marie Gustafson, public library consultant from the State Library Department; and Mrs. Elizabeth Lockhart, Public Library Children's Consultant, also from the State Library Department. Each speaker described a different phase of a Children's Room in Libraries, as well as pointers that will be very helpful to the Committee to complete the project here.

A film was also shown to remind adults of the importance of showing our children the world of knowledge through books, from imaginary friends to every discovered fact.

The Kingston Junior League is anxious and enthusiastic about the new Children's Room as their project for the year. Along with their other volunteer work in the community.

WOULD SHE HAVE ENJOYED PLAYING?

Dear Mrs. Post: I play cards with a group of friends every other week. We always play on a Friday night. I had to go somewhere for the day the Friday of our meeting and didn't think I would be back in time to play cards, so I called a friend of mine and asked her to fill in for me (with the hostess's permission, of course). I arrived back home much earlier than I had expected and called my friend to tell her that I was home and that I would be able to play cards after all and that she didn't have to fill in for me. When I had finished talking with her, my sister (who lives with me) said that I was wrong to have done this and that having asked her to fill in for me I should have let her do so. I would like to know if you think I was wrong.

Answer: I am sorry but your sister was right unless your friend only agreed unwillingly to play to help you out, and you knew she did not want to.

Inviting the Clergyman

Dear Mrs. Post: I am going to be married next month and would like to invite the clergyman who will officiate at the ceremony to the reception, which is being held at a hotel. Do I send him an engraved invitation or do I invite him personally?

Answer: If he is married, you would send an invitation addressed to The Rev. and Mrs. If he is not married, you could invite him personally when you make arrangements for the wedding.

Avoiding a Complication of Names

Dear Mrs. Post: My parents will soon celebrate their golden wedding anniversary and my sister and I would like very much to give a reception for them. However, we are puzzled as to how our names should appear on the invitations. I am single and my sister is married. Also, should my sister's husband's name appear on the invitations?

Answer: A formal invitation could be engraved, "In honour of the Fiftieth Wedding Anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. William Brown, their daughters and son-in-law request the pleasure of your company on Friday evening the third of June at nine o'clock in the ballroom of the Round Hills Club."

One reader asks how to introduce family and friends. Mrs. Post is sorry she cannot answer personal mail. Leaflet E-17, "Introductions," includes introductions and how to reply to an invitation. To obtain a copy, send 10 cents in coin to Dept. EP, c/o The Kingston Daily Freeman, P. O. Box 99, Station G, New York 19, N. Y.

Moon on The Horizon!

Perhaps what's also new on the horizon is the fact that the new leading store for Dresses is Scott's.

Over the years they've enlarged their Dress department to include Sizes 7-15, 8-20, 12½ to 26½, and 46 to 52. This fall season has been their best, and it will be to every prospective dress customer's advantage to come in and look over the smart styles on the racks.

The store, which is located between Minasian's and Kenik's rect from the manufacturers.

We also are proud of the limitless bargains available in nearly-new dresses, suits, hats, children's wear and other merchandise."

Gersback - Foisy Wedding Announced; Couple Leave on Pennsylvania Trip

MRS. RAYMOND ARTHUR FOISY
(Pennington photo)

Miss Faith Gersback, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Ger-sback of Hurley, became the bride of Raymond Arthur Foisy, son of Mrs. Arthur Foisy of Rhode Island, and the late Mr.
Foisy, in a double ring ceremony at St. Peter's Church, Rosen-dale on Saturday, Oct. 12.

Officiating at the double ring ceremony was the Rev. Donal Reidy.

James Sweeney was at the organ. Mrs. James Sweeney sang "Panis Angelicus," and "Ave Maria."

The altar was decorated with white gladioli, pompons and large white chrysanthemums.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a gown of peau de sole, princess fashion, with a square neckline, long sleeves tapered to points over the wrists, and a very full floor length skirt terminating in a circular chapel length train, Alencon lace embrodered with tiny seed pearls banded the bodice. A bridal crown of seed pearls secured the French illusion fingertip veil.
She carried a cascade bouquet of white chrysanthemums, white mums and croton foliage.

Bridesmaids included Miss Roberta Carle, Malden-on-Hudson, and Miss Elinor Hiersekorn of Lake Katrine. Their gowns were styled identically to that of the matron of honor except in colors of melon and leaf green. They carried yellow fuji mums and croton foliage.

Mother of the bride wore a rose mauve peau de soie sheath styled with a scoop neckline with tiny seed pearls, matching hat and black accessories. She also wore pink orchids.

Mother of the bridegroom wore a sapphire blue silk satin sheath with white hat and black accessories and white orchids.

Robert Foisy of Rhode Island was best man for his brother.
Ushers included Edward Wallace, brother-in-law of the bridegroom and Nicholas Radenburg of Hurley.

A reception was held at the Wiltwyck Country Club.

The bride is employed as a secretary by IBM in Kingston.
Her husband is an electronics technician.

For her wedding trip to Pennsylvania, the bride chose a traveling ensemble consisting of a two-piece black wool jersey dress, red cloche, black accessories and a corsage of Garnette roses and camellias.

The couple plan to make their home at 99A Fairmont Avenue.

Rx for Flattery: Leather and Fur
By GAILE DUGAS
NEA Women's Editor
NEW YORK (NEA)—Leather and fur get together this year in fashions of great chic and pure flattery.

There are coats, jackets, suits and evening fashions in leather this season. Many of the coats are clutch styles that narrow down to slim hemlines. Others are cocoon-shaped oval coats with lots of back interest. Where the oval silhouette takes over in suits, jackets nip in slightly at the waistline.

Fur trim may be casual (raccoon) or elegant (ranch mink). Either way, the fashion itself is chic and wearable, with sleeves that may stop at bracelet length, pockets placed high, low or at the midriff.

We show here two leather coats by designer Samuel Robert that point up fur trim. Three-quarter length coat in kidskin (left) has big notched collar of raccoon. The color is vivid orange bitters. Coat in putty green kidskin (right) has simple circle collar of ranch mink. Soft, semiraglan sleeves are cut bracelet length.

Glancing Over TV Bill of Fare
By CHARLES MERCER
NEW YORK (AP)—You have a lot of me over here," said British actor Bill Travers before his American television debut tonight on "Television Theatre" at 9 p. m.

Travers, who combines bravura size with a gentle manner and a reflective mind, meant that he's more akin to the John Wayne type in appearance than to the Noel Coward type. The rugged, 6-foot-4 Scotsman is best known in this country for his role in the British film "Wee Geordie"—which led to a long-term Hollywood contract.

Leaps to Complications
Tonight he stars in "A Cook for Mr. General" as a wildly undisciplined U. S. Army private whose genius as a cook nearly causes the downfall of a dyspeptic general. As Tom Aganis, Travers portrays a Greek-born young man who has a compulsion to slug anyone who rests a hand on his shoulder—conduct that naturally leads to complications in the Army.

"Television Theatre" sent him the script in England and he liked it well enough to come here for the special purpose of appearing in the comedy.

An actor since his release from British army service after World War II, Travers discussed his career thus:

"When you start as an actor, you have a very tiny field in which you can do only one or two things well. As you go along you should constantly try to widen your field by picking roles on the edge of it. Roles that only bring you money aren't helpful in the long run. Because money won't do you any good if you don't do a good job."

Sees Opportunity
In making an appearance on American television tonight Travers sees "an opportunity to play a different kind of role, a chance to work in a field that is very advanced and continuing to advance."

From watching television shows since his arrival here, Travers makes this general observation:

In England and the continent TV drama places more emphasis on character while American TV drama tends to emphasize pace and movement. He said he has not yet formed an opinion on which is the better method.

His observation, which has been voiced by other performers, producers and writers, recalls that "Television Theatre" is one of the few anthology dramatic shows remaining in this new TV season.

"Anthology," as used in the world of television, means a genuine variety of dramatic programs over a period of time—comedy, melodrama, mystery, studies of human character and human dilemmas. It's characteristic of this season that the biggest money—meaning an increased proportion of the sponsor money—has switched to support of stereotyped dramatic themes: westerns, crime, suspense.

So it's pleasant to see "Television Theatre" serenely going its accustomed way, a way that has led through more than 10 consecutive years of genuine variety in television drama, making it the oldest live dramatic show on the channels.

Inevitably some of its productions are better than others. But in the long run it better fulfills its

Injured Fatally
POUND RIDGE (AP)—Andre Dupont, 18, of Vista, N. Y., was killed last night and Paul Turzer, 15, of Bedford Village, N. Y., was injured when their convertible overturned as they tried to make a right turn here on Lukeswood Road, state police reported.

Turzer was taken to northern Westchester Hospital with a possible fractured left ankle and scalp lacerations. The hospital reported him not in serious condition.

State police at Hawthorne, N. Y., said Dupont, who drove the car, was dead when they arrived on the accident scene, a back road in this community about 10 miles north of White Plains, N. Y.

To Extend Library Service to Farms
ALBANY (AP)—The Education Department will launch a $300,000 program next year to extend library service to the state's farm areas.

A $153,054 grant under the federal library services act will be more than matched by the state, the department announced yesterday.

Under the program, eligible rural librarians will be offered $2,000 scholarships for a year of graduate study in library science. Grants will be made to develop cooperative projects in the localities, the department said.

The department plans to use a demonstration "bookmobile" to encourage the development of library systems in rural areas.

The initial project will operate in Saratoga, Warren, Washington and Fulton counties.

Rondout Valley Board Meets With School Architects

The Board of Education of the Rondout Valley Central School met with representatives from the architectural firms of Bellante & Clauss of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania and Harry Halverson of Kingston, New York last Friday evening at the Marbletown Elementary School, Stone Ridge.

At the meeting discussion took place on the last minute details necessary before bids might be let in the new Junior-Senior high school. Mr. Clauss presented in detail the type and color of building materials to be used in the exterior and interior of the building, the type of heating system, floor covering to be used in various parts of the building, lighting system to be used, and all other phases of the plant construction.

Mr. Merton Blanchard, principal of the Rondout Valley Central School, reports that the architects expect to be able to advertise for bids early in November for the construction of the new Junior-Senior high school.

Ulster Marines Ball Scheduled Friday, Nov. 8

Ulster Detachment, Marine Corps League will present its 11th annual ball on Friday, Nov. 8 at The Capri, Port Ewen, it was announced today by Commandant Albert F. Trowbridge.

One of the season's outstanding social events, the ball this year will feature Joe Vigna's seven-piece orchestra and a top flight floor show through the Jimmy Daley Agency of Albany.

The committee includes Harold E. DeGraff, patron tickets; Peter J. Mancuso, single tickets; Gil Gray, Edward Whalen, Robert Heaney, Valmore Carpenter, program; Harold E. Macholdt, entertainment; John Ray Mayone, publicity; Ronald Rice and Robert Matthews, arrangements.

Marines 'Birthday'

The date of the ball coincides with the official "birthday" of the U. S. Marine Corps, which this year will celebrate the conclusion of 182 years of valiant service to the nation.

Commandant Trowbridge said the Ulster Detachment selected the Nov. 8 date "to signify the reaffirmation of each member that we are proud to have been a part of the U. S. Marine Corps; are proud of the part that we, as Marines, played in the campaigns of World War 2 and Korea. We join in wishing a 'happy birthday' to the Corps and may it long continue as a everready watchdog of our country's freedom."

He announced that tickets will be on sale within a few days. Reservation plans also will be announced.

Reserve Bladder Fashioned From Woman's Stomach

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J. (AP) — Production of an "artificial bladder" from a section of the stomach was reported today by a Chicago surgeon.

Dr. Edwin S. Sinaiko of Loyola University said the substitute bladder was fashioned to aid a woman whose natural bladder was affected by an inoperable cancer and had to be sacrificed.

Tumor Blocked Opening
The tumor, he told the 43rd Clinical Congress of the American College of Surgeons, had blocked the opening to tubes linking the bladder with the kidneys, had produced hemorrhage, and anemia, and left the woman unable to void urine without the aid of an inserted tube.

He said the operation—in which a pouch of the stomach was cut away and resewn into place as a functioning urinary bladder—might be useful in the case of paraplegic patients where there is a loss of the normal muscular control of urine passage. Also, "it may be useful whenever the true bladder must be sacrificed," he said.

Results Good
The surgeon said the only patient who so far has undergone this operation—a 38-year-old housewife and the mother of six—experienced a good result. Function of the main part of the stomach was not impaired as a result of these surgeries; the patient experienced no gastro-intestinal symptoms—and she gained eight pounds in six months. Her digestion was faultless, and restoration of kidney functions took place 24 days after surgery.

Tax Payers Claim Gotham State Aid More Than Fair

ALBANY (AP) — A statewide taxpayers group, in opposing a constitutional convention, says New York City is getting more than its fair share of state aid.

Democrats favor a convention, Republicans, as a party, have taken no stand but their top leaders are against it. They fear the Democrats may try to widen their representation in the Legislature, which is now dominated by the GOP.

The taxpayers organization, the Citizens Public Expenditure Survey, said yesterday more seats for New York City Democrats might open the way for a larger city share of state aid.

Voters will be asked in the Nov. 5 election to decide whether such a convention should be held in 1959.

The survey maintained that the city gets 56 per cent of all state aid, exclusive of school assistance, while it has only 48.6 per cent of the population.

Says Public Should Be Told of Road Policy

ALBANY (AP) — The state should start familiarizing property owners with its policy on acquiring land for highway construction, the New York Good Roads Assn. said today.

John Wickham, president, said federal and state highway programs would require a lot of private property, "including homes, business places and farms."

Unless people know how the land is acquired, Wickham said, "there will be a wave of resentment, based on misunderstanding, which will deny the state the wholehearted public support for modern, safe roads."

Wickham said that the program should be carried out by the Public Works Department.

Warns Against Complacency

Nixon Seems More Concerned Over Sputnik Than President

By ED CREAGH

AP News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP) — In some ways Vice President Nixon seems more concerned over sputnik than his boss does.

Portions of a speech Nixon made in San Francisco last night could even be construed as second-guessing President Eisenhower, not that Nixon would ever do such a thing on purpose.

What Nixon did do is warn against complacency — against brushing off the Soviet satellite as a mere scientific stunt.

Complacency is just what Eisenhower has been accused of by many critics. He didn't, as former Secretary of Defense Wilson did, call sputnik "a nice scientific trick." He said it proves the Russians have a mighty powerful rocket.

Not Satisfied

But he also said last week that (A) while he wishes we knew more about missiles he is "not dissatisfied" with U. S. progress to date, and (B) he has given the scientists all the money they asked for and doesn't know what more he can do.

Nixon's words have a different ring: "If the free world is to survive we cannot rest on our past achievements or our present position of military superiority. We must constantly push forward on all fronts."

There is a seeming difference, too, in the two men's evaluation of sputnik as a propaganda weapon.

Eisenhower said last week he had been advised long ago that the Soviets would gain a political or psychological advantage if their satellite was first into space. He did not indicate great concern. He said he saw no reason why this consideration should cause the United States to get into a satellite race which might disrupt orderly research.

Nixon says the Russians will use their "scientific triumph" as propaganda ammunition in their effort to communize underdeveloped areas. And if they succeed in taking over Asia and Africa, he says, the free world will have lost its fight against communism without firing a shot.

No Split Hinted

There is no attempt here to suggest there is a split between the president and his lieutenant.

For one thing, they were addressing different audiences. Eisenhower spoke to a news conference, apparently trying to bring a worldwide blaze of alarm and confusion under control. Nixon was telling a business group why defense spending might rule out a tax cut.

Also, the differences may be more in the way the two men express themselves than in what they are trying to say.

But on the face of it Nixon does show a greater degree of concern and of urgency in going forward "on all fronts."

Says N. Y. Gives Greatest Value For Tax Dollar

ONEONTA (AP) — "Here in New York we give the biggest tax-dollar value available anywhere," the state commerce commissioner declared last night at a chamber of commerce dinner.

Edward T. Dickinson said New York taxes were lower in relation to income than in 38 other states. The commissioner maintained that comparison of state and local taxes on a per capita basis was meaningless because of variation in per-capita income between the states.

"In your campaign to attract new industry, you may have the high-tax story cited to you again and again," Dickinson said, "but you can show that here in New York we give the biggest tax-dollar value available anywhere."

Ex-Hudson Man Is 'Resigned' to Hanging

BOISE, Idaho (AP) — Raymond A. Snowden appears "pretty well resigned" to the hanging he faces early Friday, the warden at the Idaho State Penitentiary says.

Warden L. E. Clapp said yesterday Snowden, 36, had received no mail in six months and no visitors since relatives came several months ago.

Snowden, an itinerant laborer who once worked in Hudson, N. Y., admitted the mutilation knife-murder of Mrs. Cora L. Dean, 48. Indications are that no more legal moves are planned to save Snowden from the gallows Friday.

Snowden's attorney appealed the case to the state supreme court on the ground Snowden should not have received the death penalty after pleading guilty to the crime. But the high court disagreed.

The warden said Snowden will get the traditional choice of food for a last meal Thursday night.

Snowden will be the first man to be hanged in Idaho since two men were executed in 1951 for a murder.

Satchmo Is Canceled Due To Remarks

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP) — The University of Arkansas student government last night cancelled a scheduled spring appearance of Louis (Satchmo) Armstrong because of what was termed "the unfortunate remarks" made by the Negro trumpeter on the Little Rock integration crisis.

Dr. John T. Caldwell, university president, said the faculty supports the students in their decision.

Called Blunder

He called Armstrong's comments and criticism of Gov. Orval Faubus "a blunder which obviously can help no one and just as obviously does much mischief."

Armstrong had said he would be glad to play at the university but sorry that Faubus might enjoy the program. The governor said this week he considers Armstrong "a very fine musician" and hopes he gets courteous treatment in Arkansas.

Although Satchmo has made frequent acid references about the racial situation in Arkansas it was a statement Monday by Joseph Glaser, his manager, that apparently touched off the furor here.

Glaser hailed Satchmo's date to play for a university prom next March as "a great moral victory."

University spokesmen retorted it was nothing of the kind and should be divorced from the integration crisis.

Then the student senate met last night and decided to break the contract because of what student President Jack Davis termed "unfortunate remarks" made by the famous jazz musician.

Flu Ailments Sideline Nine Athletes at Kingston High

They Play Syracuse Nats, Oct. 21

Rosenbluth, Sauldsberry, Lombardo Rated Warriors' Top Rookie Prospects

Three big ingredients make the Philadelphia Warriors' outlook for the 1957-58 National Basketball Association race a real rosy one.

The trio of factors include the return of the best one-two punch in basketball, the expected Army discharge of Tom Gola and the availability of several promising rookies.

Kingston fans will get a glimpse of these factors next Monday night (Oct. 21) when the Philadelphia cagers take on the Syracuse Nationals in an exhibition game sponsored by the American Legion at the Kate Walton field house.

Coach George Senesky has the old warhorses returning, among them the incomparable Paul Arizin and Neil Johnston, also Ernie Beck, Jack George, one of the best small guys in pro basketball, Walt Davis, the high jumper; Joe Graboski, the set shot artist and George Dempsey.

Rosenbluth on Top

The three outstanding rookies include All-American Lenbie Rosenbluth of North Carolina State, Angelo Lombardi of Manhattan College and Woody Sauldsberry, the 6 foot 7, 200-pound former Harlem Globetrotter.

Rosenbluth was the nation's No. 1 college player in the 1956-57 season, while leading North Carolina to a 32-0 record and the NCAA crown. A great shooter, he averaged 28 points a game against all major competition. He tallied 2,045 points in his college career for a 26.9 average and had a career high of 47 against Furman.

Sauldsberry was one of the best performers with the Trotters and didn't do much losing because of his all-around talents.

Lombardi on Squad

Lombardi, 6 foot 4, led the Manhattan Jaspers to victory in the Holiday tournament at Madison Square Garden. Although not rated among the nation's great name stars, Lombardi attracted the attention of Warriors scouts with his excellent pivot play and outside shooting. Gola will not be available to the Warriors until December for NBA competition but has played some exhibition games. He was the sparkplug of the 1955-56 Warrior squad as it won the NBA crown in his rookie year. He was acclaimed the finest all-around performer in the collegiate game while performing for La Salle, leading the Explorers, to the NCAA crown.

Ticket reservations for the contest may be made at the Tommy Maines Sport Shop. The contest, for the second straight year, replaces the annual American Legion ball.

Ski Plant Approved

OLD FORGE (N.Y.)—The town of Webb in Herkimer County will construct a T-bar lift, an open slope and several buildings on nearby McCauley Mountain for use in the 1958-59 ski season.

Voters yesterday approved an $85,000 bond issue for the construction of the facilities.

Braves Receive Split of $8,924, Yankees, $5,606

Thirty members of the world champion Milwaukee Braves will receive $8,924.36 each for the winning share, the office of Baseball Commissioner Ford Frick announced yesterday.

The Yankees' losing share amounted to $5,606.06 each. Only the 1954 New York Giants and 1955 Brooklyn Dodgers got larger winning shares than the Braves. The Giants set a record with $11,147.90 and the Brooks got $9,768.21.

The Braves voted three-quarter shares of $6,693.27 to outfielder Bob Hazle and first baseman Nippy Jones.

Bill Dickey, who left his coaching duties in spring training because of illness and did not rejoin the team, was given a full share by the Yankees.

Sal Maglie, who spent the final month of the season with the Yankees and won two vital games, was rewarded with a half share of $2,803.03. Maglie also received a full share of third place money from the Brooklyn Dodgers amounting to $1,507.

De Marco Certain Of Gaining Title In Welter Class

BOSTON (N.Y.)—Tony De Marco, rounding into the best condition of his bomb-throwing career, served notice today that he considers himself the world's No. 1 welterweight—and will fight anyone to prove it.

"I intend to get the title and nobody's going to stop me," the Boston slugger said. "I fight when and where my managers say, but I'm ready for anyone."

De Marco shrugged off the storm caused by the action of the Massachusetts Boxing Commission in granting title recognition to the winner of his bout with Virgil Atkins Oct. 23 at the Boston Garden.

"The other contenders refused to fight me here—where we can draw a lot of money, not peanuts—so why shouldn't the fight with Atkins be for the title?" De Marco asked.

De Marco Impressive

The top contender for the welter crown vacated by Carmen Basilio's advance to the middleweight championship has impressed gym spectators with his fine condition, speed and punching power in workouts.

Meanwhile, Massachusetts Boxing Commissioner Henry Lamar reiterated that the De Marco-Atkins fight will be for the championship over the 15-round distance as far as this state is concerned.

"Commissioners in other states with whom I've talked agree that we're taking the right action," Lamar said. "I'm going to be sure that all states know our position."

But NBA President Gilbert Jackson and New York Commission Chairman Julius Helfand have announced that the NBA and New York will not recognize the bout as for the championship. Both want an elimination series between the contenders, rated by the NBA in order as De Marco, Isaac Logart, Vince Martinez and Gil Turner. Atkins is rated fifth.

HERE NEXT MONDAY—Antonino Rocca, a Madison Square Garden headliner last night, meets Irish Danny McShaine in the feature wrestling bout next Monday night at the municipal auditorium.

You will hear from time to time that West Point is interested in Hobbie Armstrong and quite likely the reports will be true.

Army is always interested in mid-Hudson area athletes. They are sold on Monty Stickle, the Poughkeepsie graduate who became a Notre Dame legend in his sophomore year. Until Stickle took the physical examination for the Point and flunked the eye test, that is.

We don't know what rating Hobbie's eyes would get in the Army physical. But it would be a strange co-incidence if Armstrong were to select the military academy as his next institution of learning and flunk out for the same reason as his neighbor across the river.

Stickle told newspapermen after Notre Dame's thrilling victory over Army that he had never even tried a field goal in high school. On his first attempt, the Poughkeepsie lad joins the South Bend immortals like Jack Elder, Terry Brennan, "One Play" Johnny O'Brien, Christie Flanagan, of the perfect play, Marchy Schwarz, Johnny Lujack, George Gipp and others.

"I come from Poughkeepsie," Stickle said, "and like every other kid in the neighborhood I wanted to go to the Point. But these things kept me out," showing the horn-rimmed glasses he wears in the classroom and occasionally on the campus. He is near sighted.

"My left eye is okay, 20/20, but my right eye is 20-200. I have no trouble seeing when I play for passes or kicks or anything else," he added.

And, obviously, there is nothing wrong with his right toe.

Flotsam and Jetsam:

Tom Creavy, of Saratoga Springs, who won the Professional Golfers Association title in an astounding upset in 1931, has been named president of the Northeastern New York PGA. He succeeds Ed Schultz of Troy Country Club. Other officers named were John Gaucias of Van Schaick (Amsterdam) who was returned to the secretary-treasurer's post. J. Carson Hutchins, Woodstock, and Jack Maxwell, Stamford, are the new vice-presidents. The NENYPGA voted an honorary life membership to Ben Danforth of the Albany Knickerbocker Club.

Junior Chamber of Commerce Little League is reported contemplating a six-team league in 1958. . . . Bruce Weiderspell, the slick running halfback for the pre-war Kingston Receptions, when his dad was a most enthusiastic booster of the team. . . . Since the wrestlers are honest, there were no morning lines published for last night's extravaganza at Madison Square Garden. . . . George Young of Detroit meets Ray Schanen of Milwaukee in Chicago to compete for cash awards on "Bowling Stars" this Sunday at 8:30 p. m. on the ABC network.

Of Men and Mice:

The amazing Harlem Globetrotters are booked for a Nov. 2 appearance at the Troy Armory. . . . Want to start a hot argument among the tavern crowd? Then try to determine which was the greatest pitching performance of all time: 1. Johnny VanderMeer's two consecutive no-hitters; 2. Don Larsen's World Series perfect game; 3. Christy Mathewson's three World Series shutouts against the Philadelphia Athletics; 4. Lew Burdette's two consecutive shutouts against the Yankees in the 1957 classic. . . . Speaking of the Series, Ed Mathews came out of it with credentials as impressive as Burdette. He buried for all time the myth that he was a good hit, no field third baseman. . . . Johnny Battagline sends word along that the Detroit Tigers baseball school at Lakeland, Florida will run from Jan. 27, 1958 to Feb. 10. . . . Ho-Hum Item: The latest effort to revive the Poughkeepsie Regatta. . . . In 21 football games since 1923, Syracuse and Cornell have blanked each other only once. Cornell won 6-0 in 1941 and Syracuse triumphed 26-0 in 1953.

Incidental Intelligence:

Bill Straub, Saugerties High School coach, will emcee the Saugerties community Halloween party in the Saugerties municipal auditorium. . . . A poll of high school basketball officials and coaches showed 232 in favor of retaining the 12 foot lane, 3 second lane. A total of 113 favored 5 seconds in the lane and 130 others were for the player in the lane to have possession. . . . In whipping New York Military Academy, 12-7, Port Jervis gained 210 yards rushing, only four less than Kingston, but yielded 168 yards compared to the Maroon's meagre 42 to the Cadets. . . . If Rocky Marcian were suddenly to come out of retirement—who would win a Floyd Patterson-Marciano bout? "Floyd would find himself on the canvas in six rounds." Author of the claim is Charlie Goldman, former trainer for Rocky. And could Mr. Goldman be slightly prejudiced?

6 Gridders May Miss Friday Tilt At Mont Pleasant Cross Country Team Loses 2 Top Runners

Flu-like illnesses has hit Kingston High's football and cross country teams and sidelined nine athletes.

Six gridders are currently on the shelf and there is a strong possibility they will miss Friday night's important game with Mont Pleasant at Schenectady Stadium. Coach Bill Burke reported.

Sports Bulletin

Kingston High has had its football game with Mont Pleasant Friday night at Schenectady postponed.

G. Warren Kias, KHS athletic director said late this morning that the upstate school asked for the postponement because of excessive illness among the students. An estimated 400 students are reported out at the upstate school.

Nov. 16 has been set as a tentative date to play the contest.

ported yesterday that first string fullback Tony Uhl and his No. 1 replacement, Tom Cragan, head the list of boys failing to report for school yesterday. The others are reserves Jimmy Rua, Milan Pece, Dave O'Connor and Robert Quarantino. Pece is a second string tackle.

Coach G. Warren Kias revealed that his No. 2 and 3 runners, John Weekly and Tom Hayes, are out along with squad member Walter Harder. Harder watched yesterday's drills in street clothes. The Maroon harriers, who like the gridders are undefeated, run against Monticello Friday at Dietz Stadium.

Uhl Loss Will Hurt

If Uhl is incapacitated it will be a great blow to the Maroons' chances. The six-foot 178-pounder has come into his own in the last two games and is the team's second top ground gainer.

Against Poughkeepsie last Saturday, Uhl carried the ball 14 times for more than anyone else and picked up 69 yards. He tallied the first touchdown which got KHS off winging to a 26-13 triumph.

Burke has Bob Decker and Tom Keating for fullback in case Uhl or Cragan aren't ready. Both are green and haven't yet broken into the lineup.

Burke, of course, could switch Hobbie Armstrong to fullback and move in any one of his other three proven halfbacks, John Pareto, Ted Switz or Bob Beadle, to left half. Hobbie played some fullback in '56 so the spot won't be strange to him.

Outstanding Record

While on the subject of Armstrong, Burke revealed some startling statistics about the 16 year-old phenom. In just four games thus far, Hobbie has amassed almost 700 yards rushing which figures out to a gaudy 175 per game. Last season, in eight games, he totaled 830. Kingston will be up against a formidable foe in the Red Raiders, who although winless, are always dangerous. Mont Pleasant has lost four games but to good teams. The setbacks have come at the hands of Freeport (18-0); unbeaten Albany (14-12); Rome Free Academy (14-13) and last week to White Plains (42-13).

Twelve months ago this time the Red Raiders were riding the crest of a 15-game all-winning streak and Kingston was pointing its guns for an upset which it successfully pulled off, 14-7.

The shoe's on the other foot today. The Maroon is sailing high, wide and handsome on a 13-game skein and the upstarters are itching for sweet revenge. With that kind of a setting, it promises to be a lively evening. Game time is 7:30.

Michigan State and Oklahoma Picked to Win on Saturday

By HAROLD CLAASSEN

NEW YORK (N.Y.)—Picking the weekly football winners always has been a four-pack job... but now the doctor says only six cigs are a day... so nervously.....

Michigan State over Purdue — The Spartans were at their 1957 best against Michigan. Purdue has been beaten three times but isn't a poor tenth. Could be a stiff workout for the nation's No. 1 team but Walt Kowalczyk & Co. should triumph.

Oklahoma over Kansas—If they all were this easy, you could give up smoking completely.

Texas A & M over Texas Christian — John Crow is one of the country's better backs... and he plays for Texas A & M.

Minnesota over Illinois—There's just a faint hint of an upset here, especially if the Illini stop fumbling. Minnesota power to prevail over Illinois speed and passes.

Iowa over Wisconsin — Two of the Big Ten's unbeaten gladiators, but it is the Hawkeyes' homecoming Randy Duncan's passing to decide.

Oregon State over UCLA—Oregon State has beaten UCLA only once since 1948 and that was last year. The trend has been reversed and now the defending coast champions, with Joe Francis doing the heavy, triumph for a second straight year.

Auburn over Georgia Tech—It is close ones such as this that make just a smidgen of nicotine necessary. It will be close.

Arkansas over Texas—Just one more drag, please. That Walt Ford of Texas can frighten anyone.

Mississippi over Tulane — Ole Miss is one of the best in the South and Tulane has dropped three of four.

North Carolina over Maryland—Queen Elizabeth will watch this game. She will wonder what it is all about. So will Maryland.

Navy over Georgia—The first of the season's bowl games. This one is the Oyster Bowl at Norfolk and Georgia will discover that Navy has a real pearl in Ned Oldham.

Army over Pittsburgh—Yes, doctor, this puff was needed. As close as they come. The mythical Eastern title could be decided with the home field giving the Cadets the edge.

Skipping over the others in a hurry:

West Virginia over George Washington.

Irish Tackle Gets Lineman Award

By The Associated Press

Monte Stickle, an end, kicked the winning field goal for Notre Dame against Army last Saturday and thereby hit the headlines.

His teammate, tackle Frank Geremia, who made it possible, was virtually overlooked in the excitement that followed Stickle's winning three-point.

That oversight was remedied today when Geremia, a junior from Sacramento, Calif., was named the Lineman of the Week in the Associated Press poll.

You may recall the situation. Army, ahead by 21-20, had the ball deep in its own territory midway in the last quarter. Army's Dave Bourland tried a jump pass over line. Geremia deflected it into the arms of teammate Nick Pietrosante, thus paving the way for Stickle's feat.

Geremia is 20 years old and of Italian descent. He weighs 215 pounds and stands 6-3.

Mexico, Southern California over California, Utah over Denver, College of Pacific over Idaho, Utah State over Montana, Washington State over Oregon, Wyoming over Brigham Young.

Caruso's Cagers Knock Godwin's From 'B' Lead

Caruso's Insurance knocked undefeated Godwin's Upholster from a YMCA "B" League tie, 50-46, last night, but, alas, no boxscore!

The five iron men who went all the way for the Insurance squad — George Holstein, DeCicco, Ainslie, Tony Musto and Tiano (Frank or Charlie)—were listed, but no individual totals. Maybe the excitement was too much.

Minute Car Wash and Tony's Pizzeria, meanwhile, remained tied for the lead, picking up their fourth straight wins. The Pizzeria routed Hoppey's, 55-37, and Car Wash knocked off Boulevard Gulf, 57-42.

Other Complications
There were other complications in the Caruso-Godwin clash. The quarter scoring gave Godwin's a total of 48 and Caruso's was on the nose with 50. Godwin's led 26-23 at the

Cook, Prussia Named Captains

LINCOLN, Neb. (P)—Right tackle Clarence Cook and Dick Prussia will captain the Nebraska University football team in Saturday's game here against Syracuse.

Coach Bill Jennings announced his choice yesterday. Cook is first string and Prussia second.

As the Cornhuskers began pregame offensive and defensive drills, Jennings warned the Orange squad would be formidable in size and in passing attack.

Spartans Lead In Total Offense

By The Associated Press
Michigan State is backing its standing as the country's No. 1 football team by leading the major colleges in total offense and rushing. NCAA figures showed today.

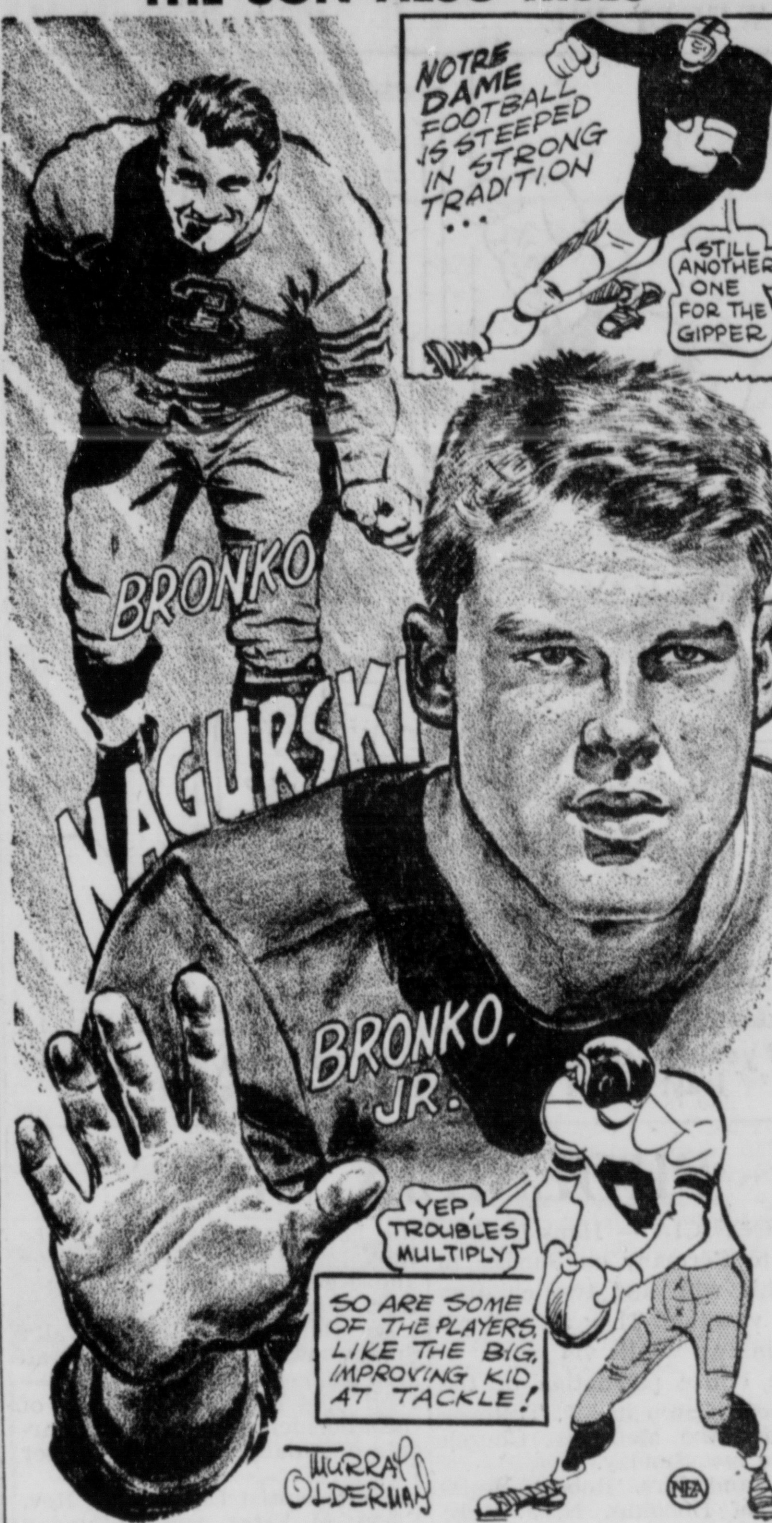

Other Big Ten teams are close. State also stands fifth among colleges in passing offense and ranks third behind two other Big Ten schools in scoring average.

Undefeated Michigan State has averaged 506 yards in each of three games on the ground and in the air. Iowa (497.3) and Wisconsin (442.7) follow.

The Spartans gained 1,023 yards in three games for a leading 341-yards-per-game mark. Next in line is Wisconsin (995 for 331.7). Big Ten again.

Scoring, Michigan State takes a back seat to Iowa (137, points, 45.7 average) and Wisconsin (128, 42.7).

Club Directors to Vote

Cleveland Scribes Feel Greenberg Will Be Fired

CLEVELAND (P)—Sports writers for this city's three daily newspapers think it likely that Hank Greenberg will be fired today as general manager of the Cleveland Indians.

If not, wrote one, the Indians will vanish—to Minneapolis in 1959. The club's 13 directors vote today on whether to retain the one-time home run king, who has bossed the Indians for eight years—some fat, some lean.

The leanest was the season just completed. The Indians lost games, fans and money amid rising rumors and denials that the franchise would be moved.

Directors to Vote
A majority vote of the 13 directors—not a stock majority—will settle the issue.

Greenberg is a director himself. He owns a fifth of the stock, but has only one vote in 13 on his own job. He says he intends to fight to keep it.

But the experts believe Greenberg must go—for much the same reason that Greenberg fired Field Manager Kerby Farrell at the end of the 1957 disaster. Somebody must be the goat.

"Stated in the simplest possible terms," wrote Gordon Cobbledick, sports editor of the Plain Dealer, "it has come to this:

"If Greenberg is reappointed, it will mean that the owners do indeed intend to seek greener pastures elsewhere. If he is fired, or persuaded to resign, it will mean that they hope to continue to do business in Cleveland."

West Virginia, Indiana Put on Year's Probation

KANSAS CITY (P)—Indiana and West Virginia universities are latest recipients of severe hand slaps by the NCAA for violating its recruiting code.

Both were put on probation for one year at the NCAA Council's annual fall meeting yesterday. Neither school, however, loses its right to participate in the 14 NCAA-sponsored championships of 27 cooperating events.

Indiana got it for football recruiting violations already toned down by action on the part of the Big Ten conference and its own school administration.

West Virginia was chastized for violations concerning the recruiting of a basketball player who eventually enrolled at another school.

The council upheld findings of the committee on infractions that Indiana Football Coach Phil Dickens violated the NCAA's financial aid regulations in recruiting prospective athletes.

While the NCAA did not divulge the name of any athlete involved in any case, a spokesman at West Virginia identified the lad involved in that incident as Kelly Coleman, former Wayland, Ky., high school basketball star. Coleman never enrolled at West Virginia.

Year After Year

Arizona has won the Border Conference baseball title every year since it was first held in 1939.

Announcement on Rigney Due

Giants Face Two Problems As Coast Operations Begin

SAN FRANCISCO (P)—The San Francisco Giants' front office moved from New York into its new office today and was faced with farm club and ball park problems.

President Horace Stoneham, who called reporters to an afternoon conference, was expected to announce that he had retained Bill Rigney as field manager of the National League club.

A few of the other developments:

1. Fred David, president of Sacramento's Pacific Coast League Solons, said he would vote against approving the sale by the Boston Red Sox of the San Francisco Seals to the Giants. He said he doubts other PCL directors would go along with the sale. "Nothing has been offered...in the matter of compensatory damages," David said.

Swap Made

The Giants swapped their Minneapolis American Assn. franchise plus cash for the Seals franchise. Stoneham said he hopes to place the minor league club in a new PCL city if one can be found. Still to be settled is what the Giants will have to pay the PCL for invading its San Francisco territory.

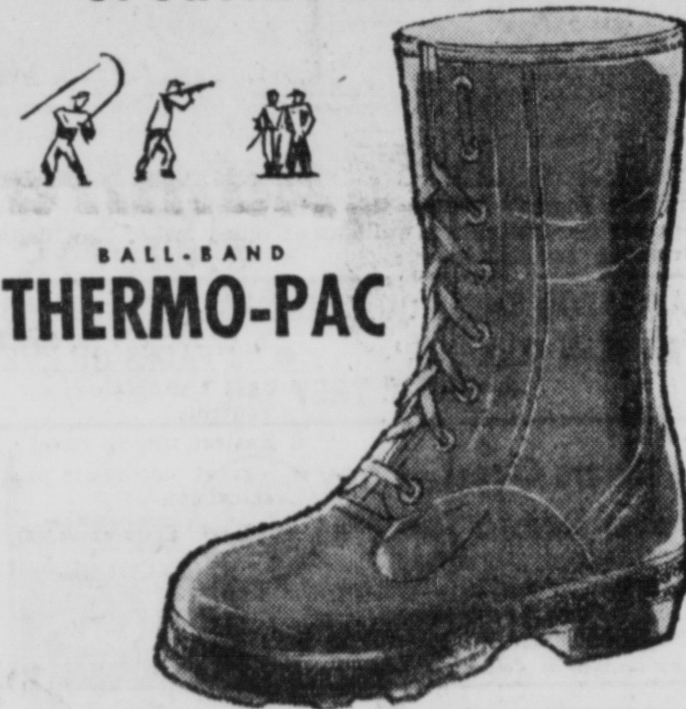

2. Contractor Charles Harney started proceedings to lease submerged land needed for automobile parking area at the site where the new Giant stadium is to be built. Edmund G. Brown, California attorney general, had ruled it would be illegal for the state to sell or exchange its tidelands unless it got more than the price of submerged land.

3. Stoneham hired Jerry Donovan, veteran baseball man and president of the Seals. His duties will be determined later.

The Giant president also said he hopes to enlarge the present Seals stadium — capacity 18,075 — to at least 23,000 by adding left field bleachers. The Giants may play the entire 1958 season there, although they hope the new stadium will be ready before it ends.

Lambert Trophy at Stake In Army-Pittsburgh Game

WEST POINT—The Lambert Trophy, symbolic of Eastern football supremacy, may well be decided Saturday afternoon when Johnny Micholosen's Pitt Panthers invade Michie Stadium to face Army. The stadium's 27,000 seats have been sold out for more than two weeks.

The Panthers have made a sterling comeback after losing their opening game 26-0 to Oklahoma. Since then they have scored convincing wins over Oregon, Southern California and last week, Nebraska 34-0.

Coach Earl Blaik's Black Knights are still stunned from the 23-21 defeat handed them last Saturday by Notre Dame. Army has a 2-1 record, compared to Pitt's 3-1, with wins over Nebraska 42-0 and Penn State 27-13.

In the most recent weekly poll for the 22d annual Lambert Trophy, Pitt held a half-point edge over the Cadets with 9.1 to 8.7 out of a possible 10 points.

Pitt holds the edge in the series, which began in 1931, with five wins against one loss. Army's only win was the greatest margin of victory in the series with a 69-7 trouncing in 1944. Last year the Panthers won 20-7 in Pittsburgh.

Redlegs Acquire Pals

CINCINNATI, (AP)—Cincinnati's Redlegs yesterday announced purchase of outfielder Stan Pals, the 1957 Southern Association batting king, from Seattle of the Pacific Coast League. In the transaction, shortstop Bobby Durnbaugh and pitcher John Oldham and John Brechin were sent outright to the Seattle club by the Redlegs.

Braves Corral Schoolboy Star

MILWAUKEE (AP)—The Milwaukee Braves have signed William Teletchea, 13-year-old third baseman, to a 1958 contract with the Wellspring, N. Y., club of the Class D New York-Pennsylvania Baseball League.

Teletchea, a 1957 graduate of the Watertown, Mass., High School, is 6 feet tall, 158 pounds. He is a switch-hitter and throws right-handed.

The signing was announced yesterday. Teletchea will report to the Braves' minor league camp at Waycross, Ga., next March.

Webb Boxes LaBua in 10

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—Spider Webb, 6th-ranked middleweight contender, and Jackie LaBua meet tonight in a scheduled 10-round bout.

Webb, fighting out of Chicago, is substituting for Ralph (Tiger) Jones, who pulled a leg ligament in training. Webb has lost only two of 25 professional fights and has kayoed 12 opponents.

LaBua, 24, has won 28 of 39 professional fights, with nine of his 11 losses coming on split decisions.

The fight, nationally televised (ABC, 10 p. m.), is one which could greatly benefit the unranked LaBua or move Webb along on his road to a title shot.

Moore Agrees To Spieser Bout

DETROIT (AP)—Light heavyweight champion Archie Moore, and his co-managers Charlie Johnson and Doc Kearns, agreed yesterday on contract terms for a title defense against Chuck Spieser, of Detroit, in January.

Joe Spieser, brother and manager of the Detroit, posted a $10,000 certified check in a brief ceremony in the offices of the Michigan Athletic Board of Control. The remaining $30,000 of Moore's guarantee must be posted with the commission by Oct. 23.

Abel Kotzen, of the board of control, said the commission received a telegram from Moore and Johnson accepting the $100,000 offer for the fight. Kearns was present at yesterday's meeting.

Redlegs Buy Havana Hurler

CINCINNATI, Oct. 15 (AP)—The Cincinnati Redlegs purchased a right-handed pitcher, Bob Kelly, from Havana of the International League today.

Kelly, 30, was with Nashville in the Southern Association last season, winning 24 games and losing 11.

Says Way Found To Harness Bomb Energy for Peace

LONDON (AP)—The Daily Express said today British scientists have found a way to harness the energy of the hydrogen bomb for peaceful use.

The newspaper quoted an unnamed scientist at the government's Harwell nuclear laboratory as saying "it will certainly be available for this generation."

Without giving details, the paper said a way to control the fusion of hydrogen atoms had been discovered by Drs. Donald Fry and Peter Thonemann.

Help for Dogs Sought

GENOA, Italy (AP)—Requests to take care of 131 hungry racing dogs were pouring into Genoa port offices today by the hundreds.

Altogether 138 pure-blooded greyhounds arrived here a week ago from Alexandria, Egypt. But seven died of starvation. A dog-breeding firm in Milan had ordered them, but it went out of business before they arrived.

The officers of the firm could not be located, and port authorities refused to let the dogs out of a shack in the port area until someone could supply proper documents and $4,000 in customs duties.

Ex-Solon Convicted For $5,000 Bribe

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP)—Former State Rep. James E. Cox was behind bars today, convicted of agreeing to accept a $5,000 bribe to withdraw a bill he introduced in the Texas legislature.
A jury in district court convicted the Conroe, Tex., accountant yesterday after deliberating 40 minutes and gave him two years in prison. The maximum penalty possible was 10 years.
The defense contended Cox, a Democrat, was trying to trap crooked lobbyists last Feb. 20 when he agreed to take the $5,000 payoff.
Howard Harmon, then head of the Texas Naturopathic Assn., testified Cox agreed to kill his bill to outlaw naturopaths, who use massage and diet in treating illnesses.

Much of France Lacks Light, Gas

PARIS (AP)—Electricity and gas were cut off over much of France today as workers in the state-operated systems went on a 24-hour warning strike for higher wages.
With telephone communications also affected, it was difficult to assess the extent of the strike in the provinces. But the midnight cutoff hit hard in the greater Paris area, which has more than five million inhabitants.
At the Atlantic port of Le Havre a general strike appeared to be developing. The striking gas and electric workers were joined by dock workers, metal workers and even employees in Le Havre's main hospital, although the operating room staff remained on duty. Four oil tankers were discharging their cargoes when the dock workers walked out.

Valencia Toll From Flood 63

VALENCIA, Spain (AP)—In the first sunshine in nearly a week, rescue workers today searched for additional victims of floods that killed at least 63 persons. More than 50 persons were missing.
Thousands were left homeless by the worst floods in modern Spanish history, over a 150-mile-long stretch of fertile Mediterranean coastline. Churches, schools, hospitals and public buildings in Valencia were pressed into service for emergency shelters.

HARRISBURG, Pa. (AP)—James Bricker awoke to begin his 88th year of life today faced with a $64,000 question.
He owns that much in real estate and some people are curious to know what he intends doing with the properties.
Questions began coming in to the retired blacksmith bachelor three weeks ago from the United States and some foreign countries when it was learned he had sold 11 Harrisburg homes for $10 each to families occupying them on a rental basis.
Still Has 16 Home s
But the queries really began pouring in when international newspaper accounts of his generosity also noted that he still owned 16 properties which he valued at about $64,000.
What, if anything is he going to do with the other 16 homes?
Will they be sold at "cheap prices" to the tenants renting them now?
"I have no plans at all for those homes. . . not one single plan," Bricker quipped.
The homes he sold at $10 were valued by Bricker at about $2,300 each—based on 1918 assessments.
Bricker was still a little excited about a surprise birthday party given him by his former renters turned landlords when he confided to a newsman last night that the whole thing has taken him by storm.
"I have received 602 letters and 152 cards," he said. "And I don't know how many phone calls and personal visits since this all began."
Even Marriage Offers
"Many of the people ask me what I intend doing with the 16 other homes and I can say frankly I just don't have any idea," he added.
He confessed, however, that he has hopes of keeping them in order that he will have some security to live out what he is confident will be quite a few more years of life.
"I even had some women write and ask me to marry them," Bricker disclosed, blushing slightly.

Six Youths Jailed On Stolen Boat Count

PENSACOLA, Fla. (AP)—Six New Orleans youths who started for Miami Saturday aboard a $28,000 trawler, were in jail here today, charged with taking a stolen boat across state lines.
They were arraigned before U. S. Commissioner Walter Largent and ordered held in $1,000 bond each. A preliminary hearing for the sextet was scheduled for Nov. 1.
The three boys and three girls were found aboard the trawler, Queen of Victory, on a sand bar near Fort Walton Beach yesterday after an extensive search. One of the six, Juanita Lopez, 16, was slightly ill.

Rosendale Board Holds Meeting

The Rosendale Village board received a letter from the Mountain Electronics Company at a recent meeting requesting permission to install a television cable system.
The board reserved decision on the request pending an examination of the lease.
It was reported that repairs had been made to the fire house and all hydrants in the village and Lawrenceville had been checked.
A discussion also was held on the village water supply and sewage problem.

Thruway to Build 'Lodge' Restaurants

ALBANY (AP)—The Thruway Authority said today two "mountain lodge" restaurants would be erected on the 24-mile Berkshire section, which is to be opened late next year.
The Berkshire section will link the present Thruway near Selkirk, just south of Albany, with the Massachusetts Turnpike.
The new service areas will be located directly across the 900-foot Thruway mall from each other, at a point three miles east of the new Hudson River bridge.
Bids on the service areas will be received Nov. 7. The authority rejected a low bid of $3,226,800 received Oct. 4 because it exceeded engineers' cost estimates.

State Rejects Church Listing of Convicts

ALBANY (AP)—The State Correction Department will continue its policy of not listing in its reports the church affiliations of convicts.
A department official yesterday rejected a demand by the Free-thinkers of America that the religious affiliations be listed in the next report of the department.
The demand was made by Joseph Lewis of New York City, president of the Free-thinkers. The organization, claiming a nationwide membership of 30,000, describes itself as a private, non-profit group devoted to the constitutional separation of church and state.

Caps Gone Again

PORTSMOUTH, Ohio (AP)—Municipal court police prosecutor Earl Stephenson is known as a general man. But thieves have also gotten the notion he's a soft touch and he wants an end to it.
First they stole all hubcaps off his car. Then they stole the car itself. Stephenson had to go out and buy a new one.
The thieves must have been watching. All the hubcaps are gone again.

Most Colorful Beard

MCMURDO SOUND, Antarctica (AP)—Construction mechanic Clifford J. Ives of Cattaraugus, N.Y., sports the most colorful beard in this frozen Army base.
Such is the considered feminine opinion of two Pan-American airline stewardesses, here on the first commercial flight to the Antarctic.
As part of the welcoming celebration yesterday, the girls were asked to judge the men's over-winter beards for such qualities as length, business, color, texture and sexiness.
